What's New and Useful for You

Knight of the Month

Wayne Gooding was selected as Knight of the Month for May for his involvement in many Knights and Parish activities throughout the year. He is committed to working at the St. Vincent DePaul Food Bank on Wednesdays, and delivering Meals on Wheels. Wayne was involved in procuring items for the 2017 Crab Dinner and Charity Auction, which helped make the auction a great success. He worked hard cleaning up, and preparing the church grounds for the Parish Picnic. Wayne serves as a volunteer for the St. Patrick's Cemetery Committee, and helps with tilling, spraying and with the recent removal of old trees and stumps. He is married to Rita Gooding. Wayne is dedicated in all his endeavors and is an asset to our Parish and community.

Lady of the Month

Joyce Prue was selected as Lady of the Month for May for the many ministries she participates in at St. Patrick's. She is an active member of the Women's Club and helps with food preparation, serving, and cleaning at Parish funeral luncheons. Joyce is involved in many of the Women's Club functions throughout the year, and is always willing to help. The Ministry she is most proud of is working with St. Patrick's Church Assisted Living, providing Holy Communion to people in their homes. Joyce is a much valued and dedicated parishioner.

Family of the Month

Jim & Paulette Hefflinger were selected as Family of the Month for May for their dedication and contribution to the St. Patrick's Food Bank. On Wednesdays, from 3:00-8:00 P.M. they work hard at the Food Bank stocking shelves and helping over 200 families as they pick up food. Every month, Paulette cleans the floors and shelves in preparation of the other workers, and those coming for food. The Hefflingers commitment to the Parish and to the community is an inspiration and example to us all. A special thank you to Jim and Paulette for doing an outstanding job helping those less fortunate.

Unfinished Business:

John and Marsha Meyerhofer hosted their Annual Three Rivers Fishing Trip/Campout, May 19-21. The weather was excellent, and all those attending enjoyed themselves; fishing, camping, and socializing. The Meyerhofers provided the main course for the potluck on Saturday night. Steaks, hamburgers, and hot dogs were served. On Sunday,

Charity, Unity, Fraternity, Patriotism

Jesse Villarreal was the acting Deacon and Holy Communion was received by the group.

Summer Training for District Deputies, Grand Knights, Secretaries, and all Service Directors will be held on July 20-22. Our Council will pay for lunches. The Grand Knight stated that additional details will be available soon.

Ron Suchanek stated that the Mother's Day Breakfast attendance was the same as last year. Approximately fifty-four moms were served.

The Grand Knight stated that the 10th Street Irrigation Project will require 500 feet of tubing, and the cover will be attached with staples.

The original Wi Fi cost, at the Parish Center, is estimated at $907.72. The updated cost is now $1,815.44. The State Convention Awards were recently in the St. Patrick's Bulletin.

New Business:

The following Knights were elected Officers of Council 3484:

- Grand Knight – Dave Bernklau,
- Deputy Grand Knight – Steve Heli
- Treasurer – Stuart Hunt
- Recorder – Duane Kloser
- Lecturer – (Appointed position)
- Advocate – Tony Davis

Jim Currie will procure the Snow Cone Machine and T-shirts for the Parish Picnic. Street Dance volunteers please see Duane Kloser for sign up instructions. Ron Suchanek passed around the signup sheet for the Fourth of July Bingo volunteers. Fourth Degree participants in the Fourth of July Parade, please see Paul Crawford for instructions.

The Grand Knight recommended that the Council absorb half the cost ($12.50) for the Knights of Columbus long sleeve shirts. Jesse Villarreal proposed a motion to reduce the cost. The motion passed unanimously.

The Knights of St. Patrick's and their families are invited to attend the Strawberry Social to be held on June 24 at the Parish Center. Please RSVP.

Cleaning crews have been blowing dust into Father Art's air conditioner compressor. A fence will be built around the heat pump. The estimated cost of the St. Patrick's Fence Project is $300.00.

The St. Vincent De Paul 10th Street Siding Project is ready for volunteers. The Knights of Columbus will provide liability coverage to allow Knights to work on the project. The Knights of Columbus bulletin board, in the auditorium, will be updated with current literature. The old display cases will be removed.

Refreshments for the Knights of Columbus meetings will be provided on a monthly basis with different volunteers.

Insurance:

Sonny Van announced that the Knights of Columbus Insurance has a new policy. The annual renewable term policy is designed to enable the policyholder to pay a lesser premium.

District Deputy Report:

Hillsboro will host the Second and Third Degree on Saturday, May 20.

Fourth Degree Report:

The Fourth Degree Meeting and social will be held at St. Patrick's, in Canby, on June 27, at 6:00 P.M.
