DISTRICT DEPUTY

Sorry to sound like an old mother hen, but, we have to get our membership up with new bodies to assist us in the coming months with the new building and the many activities our Council under takes. Some fresh blood along with those, who have been carrying the ball for the past many years' can only help in the proper running of this Council. They will learn from you, who have made this Council what it is today. Remember: one new member, per Council, per month. Thank you and May God Bless
