NOVEMBER 2013

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

FR ANTHONY MONTESINOS COUNCIL 5086

Brother Knights:

*Thank you all for participation at the October 7 meeting. The next time we hold a Rosary, and I hope to do more, PLEASE sign in and enter quietly, joining in as soon as you can. Brother John Kost coordinated a beautiful celebration with participation by, at least, a dozen Knights. The defense of the unborn can always use more help and prayers.

*Blessed with the presence of both our Pastor and our Chaplain, we had over 40 in attendance to welcome 5 new transfers including Jeff Diehl, Joe Flite, Keith Tunsey, Gary Yamine, and Robert Leonard. Pictures are available on the website at www.KofC5086.org.

*We are only beginning to take advantage of our website, as DGK Bowers demonstrated the ease of use and multiple tabs available. PGK John Paulhus assured us that THE GOOD KNIGHT will also be e-mailed directly to you, as well as being on the St. Andrew Church website.

*James O'Connor debuted as our Lecturer with an excellent historical account of Constantine's rise to absolute power of Rome in the 4th century. This led to a general decline in the persecution of Christians and, eventually the general conversion of Rome. We look forward to more information and insight into our Faith at each meeting.

*Committees have been formed for preparing our first seasonal dinner event on November 15 and for the coordination with the Columbiettes to plan for our events on Feb 14, 2014 and May 2014. DGK Randy Bowers will arrange initial meetings. I'm sure we are all excited to get back in the saddle and serve our fellow parishioners in a manner to which we've made them accustomed. After recapitulating the history of the Pikna's bequest to the Fr. Anthony Montesinos Council #5086 Knights of Columbus, the letter of advice from our Supreme Advocate, and the specifics of the Bequest Committee's guideline for disbursement of funds, the Final Plan has been unanimously endorsed and was introduced to the membership at the October 7, 2013 business meeting. Of note:
