The Joy of Easter

After the Sabbath, at the dawn of the first day of the week, three women came to the tomb of Jesus. They went to pay last respects to their beloved master. On their way, they were asking themselves: "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" They did not suspect at all that they were going to be the first witnesses of the greatest event in human history, the Resurrection of Christ.

Jesus' Resurrection is the central truth of our faith. It is the most extraordinary fact that ever happened. The Resurrection fills our hearts with joy and hope. Jesus is truly risen! He is alive! When we say this, we are not talking about a myth or a parable. He is really among us!

However, how can we be certain of this? Where can we find the signs that authenticate that Christ is alive?

We can find an answer to this question in the Gospel. Looking to what happened to Mary Magdalene, Mary, mother of James, and Salome, we can understand what allows us to be certain about the Resurrection.

They went to the tomb to anoint a dead person. Their hope had finished with Jesus' last breath on the cross. It was all over. Now the only thing that they had to do was to mourn the dead and keep his memory alive in their remembrance.

They were completely surprised by the facts. When they arrived at the tomb, they found the stone rolled back and a mysterious young man. The stone had been moved and God had sent an angel to announce Jesus' Resurrection to them.

The angel was the witness, someone who already knew what happened, someone who already lived surrounded by the light of the Resurrection. The angel was someone who radiated a light that did not come from him. He had witnessed something greater than himself.

In this angel, we can see the Church, all the witnesses through whom we have received the gift of faith. We can see in him all

An Ordinary Man

Doing Extraordinary Things

OK, you there in the back of the room, trying to avoid eye contact with the teacher – pay attention, it's book review time. This month's assignment is to read and discuss among yourselves Parish Priest: Father Michael McGivney and American Catholicism by Douglas Brinkley and Julie M. Fenster.

At the beginning of this Fraternal Year when I ascended the Grand Knight's throne so to speak, I was fortunate enough to receive a copy of the book from Margie Cuff, who urged me to read it under the not too faulty theory that if you're going to be a Grand Knight of Rosensteel, the least you can do is learn a little about who founded the Knights of Columbus. Naturally, I took the book with the best of intentions and placed it squarely on my nightstand where it sat gathering dust for months while I futilely tried to get through my growing pile of more secular printed material.

But now, having finished reading it a few weeks ago, I can willingly give it a glowing review. Mr. Brinkley and Ms. Fenster very capably show the man himself, the reason why Father McGivney became a priest, the trials and tribulations he faced as a Catholic priest in late 1800's New England and the reasons why he believed a religious order comprised of Catholic men was such a good idea. Not to mention the reason why Christopher Columbus was chosen as the Order's namesake.

While turning the pages, it slowly dawned on me that Father McGivney was the most ordinary of men in that the entity he created – in this case the Knights of Columbus – was well within the capabilities of many men. But what he had – or was blessed with, if you will – was an extraordinary will to help those less fortunate than himself (and not necessarily only those of the Catholic faith, as you'll learn from reading) and an unshakeable belief in God. Those two character traits seemed to be in short supply many years ago and, one would argue, aren't exactly flourishing around these parts nowadays.

The authors also paint a vivid picture of the hardships faced by those who professed the Catholic faith during that period of U.S. history along with views of America itself outside of religion. Through it all, Father McGivney took a long, hard look at the dire circumstances of many families, especially when illness or death came to the main family breadwinner, which in nearly all cases during that time was a man.

The closing passage of Chapter 12 perhaps best summarizes our Founder's legacy, with the authors writing, "Men from different parishes were united in a Catholic society designed to help them in the Christian obligation, and the modern heroism, of caring for a family, spiritually and financially." Does that sound like a place familiar to you? I'm hoping you think Rosensteel #2169 fits that description, or at least aspires to it, a place that Father McGivney can look upon with pride.

With April come Easter and the celebration of our Lord and Savior's resurrection from the dead. Let's continue to keep the legacy of Father McGivney alive in our hearts, minds (and wallets too...) and be grateful each day for our Rosensteel Family. Please also remember to say a prayer for the many who are less fortunate than ourselves and, please, stop by the Council if you haven't been in awhile. We'd love to see you.

Godspeed,
Frank C.

the testimonies that help us to live our faith now.

The stone symbolizes human despair, everything that does not allow us to be happy and everything that prevents us from reaching our destiny. The stone of the tomb is the experience of death, the experience of limitation. The stone is what we cannot overcome by our efforts. It symbolizes what is impossible for us.

We can believe in Jesus' Resurrection because we have already seen God's action in our lives. Many stones have already been rolled back. If we attentively contemplate our stories of faith, it is impossible not to recognize the power of the action of Our Lord at certain moments of our existences.

The angel and the stone are the signs through which Jesus shows us that he is alive. If we contemplate the witnesses with listening hearts and see signs of God's action around us, then we know that Jesus is truly risen. He is alive!

Let us ask for the celebration of Easter to increase our certainty of faith and renew our experience of joy, peace and hope. Let us ask for the courage to be bold witnesses to the Resurrection.

Happy Easter!

Fr. José

Family of the Month

In addition to being an excellent role model of what a loving and longstanding marriage is within the Catholic faith, Pat and Sarah Warner are also terrific examples of giving themselves in service to our Rosensteel Family. Pat faithfully attends any and all meetings and takes excellent minutes of the riveting proceedings thereof while Sarah, a Maryknight, is one of "Al's Gals" during Wednesday evening Bingo, helping wherever and whenever she's asked. The Warner's also financially support Rosensteel in many areas and last, but certainly not least, Pat is the brain trust behind the CIF which plays a key role in ensuring the longterm financial health of these parts. Please congratulate Pat and his lovely bride, Sarah when you see them around #2169.

April showers bring May flowers, they say. Now at the beginning of Spring we can anticipate the arrival of beautiful azaleas, tulips, pansies and roses back into our neighborhoods. What a welcome sight it will be for all of us. If your yards and gardens are visited by the local wildlife, like deer, you should consult with nursery people who can offer you advice on this matter.

The Maryland State Convention of the Knights of Columbus starts in Ocean City on May 2. Rosensteel Council has always enjoyed a favorable reception and makes a significant impression among all the delegates. A very inviting hospitality room with food and drinks will be available for everyone. You should make plans now to attend and support both our Grand Knight and our Fr. Rosensteel Council.

Have you ever read the cautionary warnings issued by AARP regarding criminal fraudulent schemes directed toward senior citizens? Every year criminals trick and deceive many elderly retired people out of money they cannot afford to lose.

These funds often are not recoverable. Please remain vigilant whenever you are approached by an unknown person, phone calls or a suspicious letter. Remember: If it sounds too good to be true, it is too good to be true. Consult with your family, a lawyer or police.

George Pelecanos. Do you recognize the name? He has written over 16 books, he is a film producer, an essayist, and the winner of numerous writing awards. He also wrote the scripts for the HBO series, The Wire, and The Treme. In his books he often uses well known sites in Silver Spring and Washington as the physical settings for the characters in his stories. He grew up in Silver Spring, attended Northwood High School and the University of Maryland. He still lives with his family here and is a parishioner of St. Sofia's Greek Orthodox Catholic Cathedral in Washington. I believe this man needs a sponsor and an application for the Knights of Columbus.

The Little Sisters of the Poor, who maintain a home for elderly persons near the National Shrine, have asked for extra prayers during the season of Lent. Let us all pray with them. And also pray that the increased efforts in many states to legalize physician assisted suicide are not successful.

Our April luncheon will be on Tuesday, the 28th.

Our March meeting was very productive and very spiritual. After a delicious pot-luck supper we were privileged to have Father Ray Fecteau deliver a beautiful Lenten reflection. He spoke on the Stations of the Cross, specifically the Fourth, Sixth, Eighth and Thirteenth stations which all related to the Blessed Mother and women in Jesus' life. He left us with a powerful message about our role as women in the church and much on which to meditate as we approach Good Friday and the Resurrection. Thank you, Fr. Ray!

An update on our own Fr. Trancone's health situation finds him at Carroll Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, 1150 Varnum Street, NE Washington, DC 20017. He asks for our prayers and we ask you to drop him a card as well.

Grand Knight Cavaliere joined us briefly to thank us for our continued support and to update us on Council activities.

Thanks to Chairs Lois Devlin and Diane Lynch for putting together a great card party. It was a great day for the more than 100 participants and we made a tidy sum for our charity fund in the process.

Mark your calendars for April 25th. All are invited to the Maryknight Anniversary Party which will be held at 5:30pm in the Emerald Room. Get your "little black dress" ready because this year's celebration takes the form of a cocktail party. Jeanne Berman's husband, "Chef" Andre, will help provide yummy hors d'oeuvres and delicious cocktails will be served. Jay Cooley Jazz, a terrific band, will entertain us! Tickets are $25 and can be reserved by contacting Margie Cuff at 301.949.1715 or margiecuff@gmail.com. You do not have to be a Maryknight to attend this party!

If you haven't already, you may receive a call from Marge Fait and her nominating committee in the very near future. They are looking for a "few good women" to fill the slate of officers for the 2015-2016 year. Please thoughtfully consider running for one of these positions. The Maryknights' future depends on all of us doing our share. The slate will be presented in April with elections to be held in May.

Our donation inventories have reached an all time low. We are especially in need of items for Adopt a Soldier and toilets, socks and underwear for our shelters.

Finally, April 13th is our next meeting. We'll have someone speaking on the topic of Angels. Looking forward to that and seeing you!

The Maryknights wish a Blessed and Happy Easter Season to our Rosensteel Family.

Pray the Rosary with us! Every Friday 5:30 PM Juvenal Room No experience necessary!

Brother All,

Easter Season is upon us. Jesus has risen! Truly he has. Remember, Christ has died for our salvation. Keep Christ and all others who have passed or who are ill in your prayers.

Remember the 4 core principles of the order:

Charity - There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need, a call we answer every day.

Unity - None of us is as good as all of us. You can count on the support and encouragement of your brother Knights as you work to make life better in your parish and community.

Fraternity - In the Knights of Columbus, we watch out for and take care of one another.

Patriotism - The Knights remind the world that Catholics support their nation and are amongst the greatest citizens.

How do we share these principles with people outside our council, outside our faith? How can we show others that their roots are calling them back to charity, service, unity and patriotism? Asking these questions of ourselves is the start.

We are Knights. We spread the Word of Christ through our Actions. Our churches are in need of new parishioners and we are in need of new members. Work to strengthen our council with new members. It is only with new members that we grow our Councils. These new brother Knights bring new ideas and energy to the Order. Catholics and Christians are being persecuted in word and action everywhere. We are Knights of Columbus. We are not perfect in all that we do, we are human, but we are not afraid.

My last thought: "For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of men." 2 Corinthians Lady Debbie and I wish you a happy and Joyous Easter Season.

Vivat Jesus,

Tom Kelly

District Deputy

Father Rosensteel: REFLECTIONS OF OUR OWN

Dear Members,

You have read two columns in the past months under this heading. I am looking for more!

We are one of, if not the, largest councils in the state! Let's remember why! I would like this space to contain stories, pictures, anecdotes, thoughts and musings of the people who have made Rosensteel what is today: A place we gather in friendship, faith and fraternity. It can pass on the history of the council and offer ideas for the future success of Rosensteel.

As the Grand Knight and District Deputy remind us in their columns this month, new members are needed to keep the Order and Council growing and THRIVING. I believe knowing who and where we come from, the foundation of charitable activities, and especially the rich history of families and friendships that connect us to this place is a great way to do this.

Please don't be shy about telling your story! So many of you have been here so much longer than I have. Let's hear about past Ocean City conventions, council picnics, beach parties, and charity balls. Talk about programs that have touched your heart or ways in which the Council has been a positive influence for you or someone else. Just email me your story or thoughts. It will be mostly fun and sometimes emotional, but it will be great!

*Do you have a Rosensteel Reflection to share?
Send it to Margicuff@gmail.com*

Reminder: It helps everyone if you would kindly place your empty bottles in the recycling container, trash in the cans and used glassware on the bar before you leave the building. Thanks!
