Council 1764 In Ludlow KY flooded again this spring.

The Louisville Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians St. Patrick wax-crayon Coloring Contest wrapped Saturday, 14 Mar 2015 through the sustained cooperative efforts of many including five KY KofC Brothers; the Most Reverend Joseph E. Kurtz, D.D., Archbishop of Louisville, Reverend Edward Gorman, O.P. St Louis Bertrand Pastor & Prior, Shaun McKiernan, and FA's Jim Fallon, & Bill Moriarity.

On March 15th, council #14130 Christ the King in Lexington hosted the State Free Throw contest. The winners were 9 Yr olds Wyatt Jenkins, Katelyn Hagan, 10 yr olds Bradley Ball, Chelsea Mattingly, 11 yr olds Aidan Brown, Lexi Hirtzel, 12 yr olds Cade Malray, Daily Spalding, 13 yr olds Marco A Dempsey, Abbey Peterson, 14 yr olds Kevin Brooks, Erin Orten.

Sixteen St. Patrick Coloring Contest 3rd, 2nd, & 1st place and Grand Prize Winners were chosen from over 5,000 Kindergarten through 4th Grade student entries from throughout the Archdiocese. The Contest Winners were presented with their original drawing in a 8" x 10" picture frame along with a "Coloring Contest Winner" T-shirt following the Noon Mass at St Louis Bertrand Church concelebrated by Archbishop Kurtz and Reverend Edward Gorman, O.P. The Grand Prize winner also received a $100 Cashier's Check from KING SOUTHERN Bank, one of the St. Patrick's Parade Sponsors.

The Knights of Columbus Council 1264 and other parishioner's raised over $3,300 to purchase a used car and pay for the transfer and taxes. This was accomplished in 2-3 weeks.

The car greatly enhances Fr. Emil's ability to carry on the Lord's work without having to depend on some kind soul to drive him to these locations.

This demonstrates the Solidarity between the Knights and our Priests in our service to God's people. John O. Thomas GK

The following is a reprint article from the February 15th issue of the "St. Jerome Journal"

Robert "Bob" Spalding was nominated from St. Jerome Church to receive the Sophia Award. He was presented the award at a Mass celebrated at St. Stephen Cathedral on September 28, 2014. Following is the nomination from his daughter, Diane Smithson.

Robert (Bob) Spalding is very worthy of the Sophia Award. He has spent most of his 83 years leading a life that is an example of a "good and faithful" servant. He spent many years as a Cub Scout master, served on the school PTA board, and was a member of the local school board. Setting a good example and being an advocate for children was very important to him. Being an active part of his church and community is also very important to him. He served as chairman of the St. Jerome Fancy Farm Picnic for years and still spends most of the day working in our family booth. He currently serves on the West Kentucky Rural Electric Co-op Board and spent approximately 25 years as a volunteer fireman taking the role of chairman for many of those years. He is a 4th Degree Knight in the local Knights of Columbus, works funeral dinners, and is an usher at church. This man is 83 and suffers from Parkinson's disease but doesn't let that stand in the way of giving his time, talent and treasure.

Not only does this man portray an exceptional example to his church and community, but most importantly, he has the utmost respect of his family. As one of five children, I grew up in a home where I knew I was loved. He went to work during the day and was home with us at night. He believed God's word, "spare the rod, spoil the child". We were disciplined, yet never doubted his love for us. We attended church every Sunday and he taught us good work ethic. All his children have become active members in their church and community as we are blessed with a role model we call "Dad".

I hope you will consider this very worthy man as you seek someone to present this year's Sophia Award. I feel he represents this award in every aspect.

The 3 finalists of the 2015 Pro-Life Essay Contest with Michael Clines, superintendent of schools, Eric Ritchie, District Deputy in the Knights of Columbus, Bishop Roger Foys and Faye Roch, director of the diocesan Pro-Life Office.

The Pro-Life Essay Awards Banquet was held March 17 at Bishop Howard Memorial Auditorium, Curia building, Covington. The topic this year was: "Each of us is a Masterpiece of God's Creation. 'Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's Creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.' – Pope Francis' Day for Life Greeting. How can we show reverence and respect for human life from conception to natural death?" The essays were written last October and each school could submit up to 15 essays to the Pro-Life Office to be judged. First place prize was $500 scholarship to the diocesan Catholic high school of the winner's choice and $100 to the teacher of the winning student. Second and third place were given $300 and $200 scholarships respectively. The Knights of Columbus generously provided financial support for the contest. Third place went to Maria Tobergte from Immaculate Heart of Mary School, Burlington; second place went to Mackenzie Kinginski from Blessed Sacrament School; and first place went to Annie Gronotte from St. Pius X School, Edgewood.

On March 11th, local councils (northern KY) presented Bishop Roger Foys with checks to continue our on-going support of our seminarians. Bishop Ackerman Council is blessed and honored to be able to support five seminarians who have answered the call to the priesthood. We currently assist: Eric Boelscher, David Hellmann, Samuel Rodgers, Louis Senn and David Godbey. Brother Terry Kidwell, Worthy Warden for our council, was on hand to present our checks. Thank you, Brother Terry for representing our council!

The Fr. Kehoe Council St. Patrick's Day Bash went off as planned despite the rising river. The hall was jammed with over 230 merry makers. In fact there are unconfirmed reports that there are a few of the merrier of the merry makers still looking for the pot of gold. Tim kept telling them it was hidden somewhere in the Mancave!

Brothers – Easter has arrived the Lord is Risen. Rejoice. March is over and spring has finally arrived. The February/ March spring contest with Supreme is over and thanks to a phenomenal last week in March we reached the goal.

The win brought us $750 in membership money from Supreme. We have done extremely well in the Supreme contests this year. You have won the cash in every one of the contests. The winnings have funded all our state contests so far this year.

With Easter the RCIA candidates have been brought into the church. Don't let this opportunity slip away. Contact the new initiates and recruit them into the Order. That will be the boost we need to achieve our goal of being #1. At present we are tied for eighth among the 53 US States and Territories. We have always had very strong fourth quarters so the odds are in our favor that we will be very much in the race to #1.

In my travels about the state I continue to be amazed at the great things I see the councils doing. In Whitesville last week I found out that the council each year gives a catholic student entering college a scholarship to cover their text books for the year. The cost of textbooks is very high and thus the scholarship is a big help to the families of the winners. Father Mario's council is holding a Father Daughters Prom. It is a dinner and dance. My granddaughters are really excited about going to their first prom. When people ask what the Knights of Columbus do the answer is simple – "we do good".

I am pleased to announce that we have three new councils so far this year, Knottsville in the Diocese of Owensboro, Jesus Our Savior in the diocese of Lexington, St. Bridget/St. James in the Archdiocese of Louisville. In early May our fourth new council will activate in Scottsville which is in the Diocese of Owensboro. The growth of new councils and increased membership in existing councils insures the continued existence of the order.

Keep doing the good things you do in support of your Church, Community, Youth, Council, Family and Culture of Life.

God Bless Each of You,
Frank Shay

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
 IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

From State Secretary Gabe Cabral

With the coming of April, we can finally see the convincing evidence that this winter will not last forever! As a former New Englander (Massachusetts to be exact) I ditched my snow shovel and swore I would never own or use one again when I moved south. Little did I know that the great state of Kentucky sometimes gets more than the occasional "Nuisance" snow. This past winter I found myself knee deep without the proverbial paddle we hear so much about. Undeterred, I exercised what some call "Yankee Ingenuity" and grabbed a 2 foot by 4 foot piece of plywood from the garage and plowed 2 tire tracks in my driveway. I guess it was a pretty good idea, because a couple of days later, I saw a neighbor doing the same thing.

So now you're probably wondering what or how this has anything to do with the Knights of Columbus, right? Well, it has a lesson that we must all learn to improvise, adapt and overcome – a culture in the US Marine Corps as depicted in the movie, "Heartbreak Ridge". This is the approach that we should be taking when speaking to new prospective members. Not every potential member is looking for the same thing. Some have a need to do more than they do today to pay it forward. Others have a need to belong to something much bigger and important than themselves, and still others are looking for something good they can do to be a great role model/example for their family. What does your potential member want? You know who he is...he's the guy who you see every weekend at church either by himself, or with his family. He's the guy who just moved to the area, or joined the Catholic Church this past Easter. Make an assessment of what this potential member might be interested in and plan to speak to him. You'll at least get the wheels turning in his mind about joining!

On another note, I would like to remind all our councils across the state that I will need your delegate registration forms very soon. Convention weekend is quickly approaching and I need to know who your councils are sending as delegates. This is different than the Convention Registration that you send to Past State Deputy Jim Fink. Delegate registration forms can be scanned and/or mailed to me at gcabral@twc.com or Gabe Cabral 261 Evergreen Court Bowling Green, KY 42104. If you need the form, I will be happy to send it to you. Remember that a council's delegate(s) will only be seated as such if the council is current with Supreme financial obligations, and Kentucky State assessments of New Member fees and State Per Capita billing. If you have any questions regarding your council's status, please let me know and I'll look it up and let you know as soon as possible.

Supreme's "Spring into COH" contest concluded March 31. It appeared we were going to be out of the money as Supreme was showing us 18 members short of goal on the last day to reach 20% of combined quota for February and March. The State Deputy knew there were at least 18 Forms 100 in the pipeline that Supreme had not posted. He contacted Membership

Records and low and behold they were found and posted. Thanks to the recruiters in 27 Councils and DD Ken Rosenbaum's 13 members recruited for a new Council we were credited with an intake of 63 new members for March. You earned the State an additional $750.00 to be used for local incentives. This shows our final standing.

Supreme unveiled the final fraternal year membership contest on April 1. It will end on June 30. Incentive money earned during the Triple Crown contest will roll over into FY 2015-2016. WildCard will be running in the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes. It is up to the recruiters to bring him into the Triple Crown winner circle. Incentives earned could be as much as $2,610.00. The following chart shows our standing as of April 8. The -9 is worrisome as this number must be positive with intake of 10% (57 members) ($900.00) each month. The second part of the incentive is to be in the win ($900.00), place ($750.00) or show($600.00) each monthly finish. Third, if we can reach a combined three month intake of 33% (189 members) ($810.00).

To follow the contest activate this link by placing your cursor over the link and follow the prompt <http://www.kofc.org/un/en/officers/index.html> We are in the final three months of the fraternal year. All of Supremes quotas – member intake, net, net/net, insurance, Star Councils, round tables, and new councils are possible when we work together to achieve them.

Please scan all Forms 100 and email to membershiprecords@kofc.org.

Worthy DD please insure there is at least one FIRST DEGREE scheduled in your District for the remaining three months.
