CHS Food Pantry – This Church of the Holy Spirit Ministry in the Kane Center on the church campus has been serving our community for 12 years. The CHS Pantry is aligned with the Supreme Council’s ‘Food for Families Reimbursement Program.’ Last year, 5,900 people used the pantry, 1,738 families were served, with 310 children receiving school supplies. Eighty-eight Christmas and 65 Thanksgiving dinners were distributed.

Brother Knight George Palicki is one of a number of our brother knights who have been quietly contributing their support and help in building this very meaningful ministry. Unfortunately, the number of volunteers has been diminishing. This is a call for you to consider and come forward to lend a hand.

To learn about the Pantry and how you can help ensure its continued success in serving our community, please scroll down to Page 2: “Church of the Holy Spirit Food Pantry.”

Church of the Holy Spirit Food Pantry

The Church of the Holy Spirit's Food Pantry is non-geographic and non-denominational. Since it began in October 2004, there have been approximately 28,000 visits to this Pantry by those in need.

Please suggest this Pantry to families that you know of who are in need of this kind of support.

Each week, about 150 guests, primarily from the Schaumburg and Hoffman Estates area, come for food and dry goods provided by the Pantry. There are usually about 25 volunteers to serve them.

The CHS Pantry is in need of new volunteers to ensure that this very meaningful and most rewarding experience remains viable. This past year, a number of wonderful volunteers have left due to illness, family and work obligations.

Stop by and see how this all works, what you'd like to do and how often you could help to serve guests, stock shelves and other tasks as needed.

Every Thursday afternoon, from 2:00 to 5:00, food is distributed to needy families. Join the other volunteers who meet at 1:30 to get organized for the 2 o'clock family need arrivals. The Pantry closes at 5 PM, followed by clean up and storage. You are on your way home by 5:30 PM at the latest.

Every Wednesday between 10:00 AM & 1:30 PM and Thursday mornings between 9:30 & 11:30 AM: Volunteers are also needed to help unload and store the food deliveries from the Greater Chicago Food Depository.

You can volunteer to work just a few hours, a week, a month or full time if you wish. Many of us are retired - some in their 80's. There are various types of jobs - many do not require great skills or strength. There are a few that do require some patience - interfacing with others.

A message from the CHS Food Pantry Director

"Thank you for all you do to make the food pantry a welcoming place for those in need. Many of the people that use the food pantry tell us that they not only appreciate the food they are given, but the graciousness and kindness shown to them."

LaVerne Horgan
