Hoffman-Schaumburg Council #6964

“My best wishes for a happy and blessed New Year to all of my valued fellow Brother Knights. With this New Year, I am reminded of a television commercial that is now playing. It’s the one with the camel asking everyone about Wednesday: ‘Do you know what day it is? It’s Hump Day.’

“January 1st was our ‘Hump Day.’ That’s the start of the 2nd half of our K of C fraternal year. We’ve had a very successful 1st half year. We cannot rest on our laurels. Our focus must remain on fulfilling our motto: ‘In Service to One, in Service to All’. Let’s all step up to our charge to volunteer & participate in our council’s activities and charitable events. I ask God to guide and help us to have a prosperous year.

Vivat Jesus
