Hoffman-Schaumburg Council #6964

St Patrick's Day Family Party Survey says . . . 'Grand Time'  Thank you to all who volunteered, attended, participated and shared your comments on how much you enjoyed the evening.

The lead leprechauns – Brian Parziale, Craig Smith and Eric Woebel – have our utmost appreciation for coming forward and taking the lead in staging this grand event. Our biggest council fund raising program was indeed a success. Our brother knights, their families and St. Hubert staff who volunteered made it all happen.

Nearly 300 adults and children enjoyed the McNulty Irish Dancers, The Chicago Police Emerald Society Bag Pipe Marching Band, plus our DJ's Irish music standards and current 'dance' music. We had plenty of real deal corned beef & cabbage with all of the trimmings. We raffled a $1,700 Royal Caribbean Cruise, $475 in nine cash prizes, and more than 50 gifts from local businesses for free dinners, merchandise and services.

Scroll down for pages of photos that present some of the happy faces and facets of this wonderful evening.

Chick-fil-A Council Funds Raiser – Our council is staging this event on Monday, March 24, at Chick-fil-A on Golf Road, just west of National Parkway, and east of Plum Grove Road.

This is a great opportunity to enjoy a meal out with family and friends, and earn a portion of the proceeds for our Council's charitable funding account. This runs from 10:00 AM until 10:00 PM, so come and have lunch and/or dinner.

Everyone is invited. You must use the flyers that are presented following this page, and distribute copies to your to family, friends, businesses, etc. A flyer must be presented to the cashier at the time of purchase. We cannot pass out flyers in the restaurant parking lot on the day of the event.

Our thanks to Bill Gulik who has arranged this fine program. All we need now is our members' support.
