Feed My Starving Children, founded in 1987, is a Christian non-profit organization that coordinates the packaging and distribution of food to 70 countries for people in need.

On May 18th, our council, along with participants from Holy Ghost and St. Marcelline councils, gathered at the Feed My Starving Children (FMSC), Schaumburg Facility, 740 Wiley Road.

We had 73 members, family and friends help pack "manna packs." 235 cases were filled in our two hour shift. This will feed 139 kids for a year with a highly nutritious mixture of food. We indeed enjoyed our work together and the life-saving results.

A check for $1,036.64 from our council's Malnati's, April 23, dine-to-donate.

Thank You, SK Tom Van Havermaet, for your lead on this project.
Thank You to all who contributed.
