Issues with Growing Older

We have had a small problem with our birthday postings, and we apologize.

Our staff has implemented a new policy when it comes to birthday reporting. If it's your birthday and we didn't publish it in the newsletter consider it an official Unbirthday.

The downside is your friends and family don't have to give you any presents.

The upside is that the aging process will not happen until your next birthday.

Our secretary is standing by to correct any birthday issues, please send email to:

Every one had a great time, Santa was there thanks to Greg Pekarcik.

But wate, what about Mom?

MOMS NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

It was the night before Christmas, when all thru the abode only one creature was stirring, and she was cleaning the commode. The children were finally sleeping, all snug in their beds, while visions of Nintendo and Barbie, flipped through their heads. The dad was snoring in front of the TV, with a half-constructed bicycle on his knee. So only the mom heard the reindeer hooves clatter, which made her sigh, "Now what's the matter?" With toilet bowl brush still clutched in her hand, she descended the stairs, and saw the old man. He was covered with ashes and soot, which fell with a shrug. "Oh great," muttered the mom, "Now I have to clean the rug."

"Ho-ho-ho!" cried Santa, "I'm glad you're awake. Your gift was especially difficult to make." "Thanks, Santa, but all I want is some time alone." "Exactly!" he chuckled, "I've made you a clone." "A clone?" she asked, "What good is that? Run along, Santa, I've no time for chit-chat." It was the mother's twin. Same hair, same eyes, same double chin. "She'll cook, she'll dust, She'll mop every mess. You'll relax, take it easy, Watch The Young & the Restless." "Fantastic!" the mom cheered. "My dream has come true! I'll shop. I'll read, I'll sleep a whole night through!" From the room above, the youngest began to fret. "Mommy?! I'm scared... and I 'm wet." The clone replied, "I'm coming, sweetheart." "Hey," the mom smiled, "She knows her part." The clone changed the small one, and hummed a tune, as she bundled the child, in a blanket cocoon. "You're the best mommy ever. I really love you." The clone smiled and sighed, "I love you, too."

The mom frowned and said, "Sorry, Santa, no deal. That's my child's love, she's trying to steal." Smiling wisely Santa said, "To me it is clear, Only one loving mother, is needed here." The mom kissed her child, and tucked her into bed. "Thank you, Santa, for clearing my head. I sometimes forget, it won't be very long, when they'll be too old, for my cradle-song." The clock on the mantle began to chime. Santa whispered to the clone, "It works every time." With the clone by his side Santa said, "Goodnight. Merry Christmas, Mom, You'll be all right."

The HIDDEN MEANING behind The 12 Days of Christmas!

The Church has endured changes since the Second Vatican Council, but we have a long history of traditionally celebrating Christmas all the way to the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary on February 2nd. Let's look together at the beauty of having forty days of Christmas. "Our sweet Infant Jesus, who is still lying in the humble crib, is each day gaining strength."

1. Something to adore, longer

Any baby who is forty days old is still considered a baby. And still very cute. So don't complain that a forty-day Christmas season is unreasonable—keep the cute Christ child around all of the season!

2. Fresh baptismal water

At Jesus's baptism, the waters receive from him the sanctifying power and becomes a prolific source of supernatural life."

Jesus was baptized when he was thirty years old, but most catholics are baptized as infants! And it is a surviving tradition to make brand new Holy Water for Christmas. Another good reason to celebrate this during the Christmas season.

3. Preparation for the wedding banquet

The Three Wise Men go into "the holy cave of Bethlehem, there to offer our gifts to the Divine Infant." There is a deep spiritual connection here. Our gifts that we bring to the Infant Jesus, along with the gifts from the Magi, are like wedding gifts for the wedding between the Bride (us, the Church) and the Bridegroom (Jesus). Note that Jesus's first miracle at the Wedding in Cana is celebrated also during the forty days of Christmas.

Our gifts that we bring to the Infant Jesus, along with the gifts from the Magi, are like wedding gifts for the wedding between the Bride and the Bridegroom.

4. More than just for the occasion

During the Christmas season, as we are celebrating the wedding at Cana, we also celebrate "the Bridegroom revealing himself to the Spouse." Now check out another mind blowing connection. The wine was had run out is supplied by Jesus on another level. Wine comes from grapes. Grapes come from vines. "The true vine is our Jesus and he called himself by that name."

5. Two doves

"The parents took two tender little milk-white doves, which they offered for Jesus, and which, by the prescription of the Law, were consumed in a holocaust."

On the traditional last day of the Christmas season, February 2, we celebrate the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This quote is from a hymn prayed on this feast day. Notice "two tender little milk-white doves" sounds like "two turtle doves." In fact, there is another prayer on this feast day that does indeed use the words, "a pair of turtle-doves."

6. Who can help but love babies!

"Under the form of Infancy, in order that thou mightest draw us to thyself by the simplicity and loveliness of that tender age. Encouraged by thy sweetness; we have come to thee; we have dared to approach thy crib, and there we have taken up our abode."

If God is trying every way to get us to love him, it makes sense that one of the ways he tries is through a baby which most people can't help but love.

7. More quality time with our mother

"O Mother of God, thou hast affectionately welcomed us at the crib of thy divine son; thou hast received us as a brethren of thy Jesus."

Can you imagine what it would have been like to visit Jesus like the Three Wise Men? They had to go through Mary, first. And the Virgin Mother must have be incredibly warm upon that encounter with the Magi as well as with us.

Pro-Life Report

My Brother Knights,

As we reflect on all of our Blessings that have been bestowed our way, now is the time to give it our all so that our new year resolutions will last longer than our firework shows. This past month has been really hard on myself and the family with a few problems not foreseen. Life sometimes can deal a bad hand but you got to make do with what you've got. You think you got it real bad until you see the young patients at the Children's Hospital or even one of the burn centers. We as grown ups, take everyday life for granted. Sometimes even the simple things like walking, breathing or just to looking outside to see the sunrise. I encourage all my Brother Knights to actively participate in Defending Life at all times, like we are taught, life to natural death.. Especially during the upcoming National Marches. One of these marches will be the Texas Rally for Life which will be held on Saturday January 25, 2020 in Austin, Texas. The marches for 2020 will mark 47 years since Roe vs Wade was started. Please join the thousands of Texans to march in support of each human life. The other national march for Life will be on Friday January 24, 2020 in Washington DC.

There will not be any announced rosaries for the Helper's of God's Precious Infants this month because of the marches. Please standup and be counted as we are called to Pray our rosaries publicly to show our support and become politically active in support of our Christian values and beliefs. Stand up and be the voice of the voiceless and give life to possible!!

Your Brother in Christ
