CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

The men with the plumed hats, capes and swords. To many people, that is the Knights of Columbus. There is no doubt that the Color Corps is the face of the Knights, and they do add solemnity and dignity to a Church liturgy or event. As pastor of St. Mary's, I am very grateful for the recent call outs for our 75th Anniversary celebrations.

Of course, you know yourselves, and anybody who knows the Knights of Columbus, the Color Corps is only the tip of the iceberg. Just as the work of the military is not to dress up for parades, the work of the Knights is far more than ceremony. Behind the scenes are countless hours of charity and work in behalf of life, the Church and the clergy.

Just at our recent anniversary Masses and receptions there were many brothers working behind the scenes serving food, moving tables, ushering and many other tasks. Our Lord teaches us that we should not perform works in order to be seen, and certainly our Council does not seek attention. However, I definitely see the work that is done and greatly appreciate it. So, while many may think of the Knights as only the Color Corps and may not know what you do, many others do.

To all those guys with the plumed hats, capes and swords, and all the rank and file behind them, thank you for all you do, and especially for all you have done for St. Mary's.

Everyone enjoy the rest of the summer! Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

August should be known by the Knights of Columbus as the month of our founder, Father Michael J. McGivney. His life and vision is what our order is based upon, Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism.

Michael J. McGivney was born to Irish immigrants in Waterbury, Connecticut, on August 12, 1852. The eldest of 13 children (only seven of whom survived to adulthood), he studied for the priesthood and was ordained on December 22, 1877, and was assigned to St. Mary's Church in New Haven. By his holy life, exemplary virtue, piety and priestly character, he was recognized by many as "a saint in the making." Father McGivney dedicated his life to the spiritual and physical welfare of others, creating the Knights of Columbus in 1882 to provide insurance for the protection of widows and orphans, and the spiritual benefit of its members and families. The founding of the Knights of Columbus was a means rather than an end; a means to strengthen husbands and fathers so that they could, in turn, strengthen their families in the faith and secure their material well-being. Father McGivney was an idealist. He was a man whose youthful vision and creativity expanded and matured even as his physical well-being diminished. Father McGivney died on August 14, 1890, two days past his 38th birthday.

In March of 2008, Pope Benedict XVI bestowed the title "Venerable" on Father McGivney. Please remember him in your prayers. Below is the Prayer for the Canonization of Father Michael J. McGivney.

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify your venerable servant Father Michael J. McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen. (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.)

Vivat Jesus, Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

OUR GUARANTEES SET US APART

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can; GUARANTEES. As long as you keep your premiums current, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind, and that's what we offer with our Shield for Life.

We GUARANTEE the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We GUARANTEE the rates on your term insurance.

We GUARANTEE our retirement products will provide a stream of income when you need it.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

You don't have to take my word for it. The Order consistently earns the highest ratings for strength and security from AM Best. There is no more highly rated life insurance provider in North America. When you couple this with all the charitable and volunteer work of the Order, it's hard to beat the value of Knights of Columbus Insurance.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to the vision of Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights. My mission is to continue his vision through our council. We must gear our efforts to those our Venerable Father intended for us.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Order, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. These principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: "In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

I encourage YOU, Brother, to call today to discuss how our products can bring that peace of mind to you and your family.

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney

(Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
 the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
 to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
