CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

“One of these days...” Each of us can finish that sentence with dreams, plans, or bucket list items. With all the talk we hear about bucket lists, we put a lot of emphasis on things that we have not done. That’s fine, but that search can distract us from what is even more important—the things that we have done.

We find ourselves in that part of the Liturgical Calendar between the seasons of Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter called Ordinary Time. More than filling in the days between the major feasts, this reminds us of the value of just that – ordinary life. With too much emphasis on the spectacular and achieving great dreams, we can talk ourselves into believing that everyday life is boring or meaningless. To the contrary, most of life is ordinary, but also beautiful and important. In fact, true greatness can be found in those who embrace the ordinary and make it extraordinary. Being a great husband, a devoted father, a good grandfather, an involved Knight, a faithful Catholic are of far greater value than any “one day” dreams we may have.

I like to compare life to sports. Any player will eventually have a highlight—a home run, a great catch, an interception, a blocked goal. The great players, however, are those that perform and give their best every play in every game. The same is true in life—even if overlooked and unnoticed. So, embrace ordinary life. Give it your best. Be the best Knight you can be—and everything that goes with it.

Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

February, the month of love, Valentine’s Day, but in the society we live in today, love is not His love. Love is portrayed by the media as sex, lust and physical pleasures. Their version of love is defined as what makes me feel good, it is what I want, my desires and my passions.

So what is Love? Real love comes from the center of your soul, it also known as agape love. Agape love comes from God and is the act of the will, not of feelings. Agape love is willing the good for others. 1 Cor 4-8 “Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, love is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.”

Saint Augustine wrote “What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like.” These are the ideals Father McGivney utilized to found our order. This is the love the world needs to see today.

Vivat Jesus, Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

Don't wait, act today

When your family is hungry, you see that this need is taken care of quickly. You don't put it off until tomorrow, you act immediately to the best of your ability. As a provider to your wife and children, your responsibilities are great and your time is spread thin. It is easy to forget important tasks or let them slip to the backburner for later.

Everything, including your health, can change in the blink of an eye. Don't put off today what can't wait until tomorrow. As your professional Knights of Columbus agent, I urge you to make securing life insurance for you and your family a top priority.

It is my fraternal obligation to make sure that every member has the opportunity to protect his family with the Order's top-rated insurance products. I'll work with you to put a plan in place that will help your family when that help is what they needed the most.

Your Knights of Columbus insurance program is second to none. As the premier safety net for Catholic families for more than 126 years, our insurance program makes me proud. But I'm also concerned that too many of our brother Knights have not yet looked into the needs of their family. I suspect that, for many of them, life insurance has drifted to the backburner until tomorrow. Don't be one of them; move your insurance needs to the forefront today.

Your Field Agent,

Jonathan Pandolfo, Bus. Phone: 609-549-6568

E-mail: Jonathan.Pandolfo@kofc.org

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney (Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
 the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
 to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
