CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

When was the last time you received a standing ovation? I don't know about you but I have lost tract! Well, maybe I'm exaggerating a bit, or probably, my family is right and I'm delusional! The truth is that standing ovations are not that common. Granted some are perfunctory, but others are heartfelt.

Think about that school concert. Parents and friends stand up and cheer, not because the kids hit every note. The applause is for the children and their effort. It's a way of cheering them on and letting them know that you are proud of them. Then there are those moments when someone has overcome incredible obstacles and is honored. People stand with tears in their eyes and feel as if they cannot clap loud enough to acknowledge that hero. What about those moving times when our wonderful veterans are recognized?

Standing ovations can be quite powerful, but also a way of uniting an audience. During the applause all present are truly one. There is no awareness of or even concern for differences. Everyone is united in that positive expression.

Every Fourth of July, people across America unite to give our nation a standing ovation. For at least one day, differences are overlooked. On that day everyone is a proud America. It is like that feeling by which we were all bound in the aftermath of September 11. The problem is that is usually doesn't last. Just as the ovation eventually dies down, sadly so also does the sentiment of togetherness.

Patriotism is the focus of the Fourth Degree of our Order, but clearly, patriotism beats in the heart of EVERY Knights of Columbus. In that spirit, we give our nation a standing ovation all year long.

Even more than being a principle of our Order, it is a message that desperately needs to be heard again and embraced. There is far too much negativity and division these days, a true disservice to our founding principles. I complement our Council on its patriotism and encourage you to keep it up. It is so important. So, for the Fourth of July, give our nation and standing ovation, but don't let the applause die down, but continue all year long!

Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

In today's world, many Catholic men are looking to fulfill their desire to spend meaningful time with their family, to serve their community and their Church, and to grow in their faith. Joining the Knights of Columbus provides these men and their families with volunteer opportunities and activities that accomplish these goals.

As we start our new fraternal year, I see around me this incredible group of Knights and their families. How much I have learned just by listening and observing you all. "Iron is sharpened by iron; one person sharpens another." Proverbs 27:17. Men and woman learn from each other by conversing and observing each other's actions and in turn grow in wisdom. I would like to extend the blessings of all of you this year to as many other people as possible. This year I ask that each of you invite one new man to join our council. Bring in a new man to learn what I have learned from all of you will strengthen our council. As Knights we share camaraderie with other men who hold values similar to ours. As Knights we are involved with our community; we support our Catholic Church and its causes, while deepening our own faith; and we believe in protecting and enhancing our family life.

Jesus said "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." Matthew 28:19-20. The Knights of Columbus creed is Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism, and you live the creed every day as you serve others. Let us pass on our faith to as many as possible.

Vivat Jesus, Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

Life Insurance as a Gift?

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. "How morbid," they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times.

The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you're alive. Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse's quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It's a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (i.e. college tuition, housing, business start-up, etc.). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney (Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
