CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

May is a very special month. During it we honor the Blessed Mother. We honor all mothers, both living and deceased. Many young people will either graduate or complete another year of college. It is also the time of the year when children receive their First Holy Communion.

Holy Communion is, of course, one of the seven Sacraments and one of three Sacraments of Initiation, along with Baptism and Confirmation. There is a part of the Church's Sacramental theology that many Catholics do not know, but I think you will find instructive. It was defined at the Council of Trent and in Latin is stated, "ex opera operato" (literally: "by the very fact of the action's being performed"). What this means in plain English is that as long as we have the right stuff, the right person, and the right words, we have a Sacrament. The value of this teaching is that it removes any doubt about the effectiveness of a Sacrament, in other words that the presence and power of Christ is guaranteed. It also means that the reality of the Sacrament does not depend on the disposition or faith of either the minister or the participant. This was important in the early Church, when there were questions about the validity of a Baptism performed by a priest who had abandoned the Faith. We can see the same situation in Holy Communion. Even if a priest does not believe in the Eucharist, if he is a validly ordained priest and says the proper words over bread, there is Holy Communion.

The point of all this theology, while important, has had some negative consequences. It has led some Catholics to have an almost automatic and even mindless understanding of the Sacraments. It has allowed some Catholics to forget the other part of the equation. While a Sacrament is guaranteed, its effectiveness depends on the disposition of the participants. That is the part that Catholics forget. It is important and beautiful for a child to receive First Holy Communion, but for it to truly bear fruit in their lives they must learn to be open to the Real Presence and continue to receive. The same is true for adults. While they do indeed receive the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Our Lord, how effective it is depends on their disposition. If a Catholic receives Communion with little devotion, or prayerfulness, or love, the Sacrament will have little effect in their lives.

During this month of First Holy Communions, let us pray for all children and families to have a genuine love of the Eucharist. They us also look into our own hearts, examining our disposition as we receive Holy Communion.

"May the Heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, be praised and adored, at every moment, in all the Tabernacles of the world, even to the end of time."

Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Brothers, May is the month we honor our Blessed Mother Mary, the mother of our savior, Jesus Christ. May 14th, Mother's Day, is the day we honor our own mothers as well as the mother of our children. We thank mothers for giving us life, taking care of us when we could not take care of ourselves and supporting us to be the men we are today. Our mothers show us, by their selfless actions, what we should look for in the women who we will eventually marry and start our own families. Our mothers are the greatest influences in our lives.

Once we find that perfect woman, who we know will be our soul mate and the mother to our family, "For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." Ephesians 5:31, and we choose to marry. Our wives guide us "Likewise, you wives should be subordinate to your husbands so that, even if some disobey the word, they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct when they observe your reverent and chaste behavior. Your adornment... the hidden character of the heart, expressed in the imperishable beauty of a gentle and calm disposition, which is precious in the sight of God. For this is also how the holy women who hoped in God once used to adorn themselves and were subordinate to their husbands; ... You are her children when you do what is good and fear no intimidation... Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble." 1 Peter 3:1-8. As our family develops, our wives, now mothers to our children, become the mothers our children look to for guidance, protection and love. "She opens her mouth in wisdom; kindly instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband, too, praises her: "Many are the women of proven worth, but you have excelled them all." Proverbs 31:26-29.

Remember your mother and the mother of your children on Mother's Day and all the days of your life. Without our mothers we would not be here today. Without our Blessed Mother, Mary, yes, we would not have Jesus Christ and the promise of our eternal salvation. God Bless them all.

Vivat Jesus, Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

Only Having Insurance "Through Work" Doesn't Work

Do you know anyone whose life or career has drastically changed during these years of economic downturn? It's very likely that someone in your immediate or extended family or group of friends is facing financial uncertainty. Maybe there's a possibility that you (or your spouse) could lose your job or change employers.

Too many people have often relied on group term life insurance as their only safety net. Often, this insurance is an employee benefit provided at low or no cost. The existence of this coverage might convince someone that personally-owned life insurance is not necessary.

But only having "through work" insurance can leave you and your family vulnerable. Most group life insurance policies are limited in amount, which may be tied to salary or some other benchmark. These numbers are often capped, and this cap may be dangerously low when compared to your family's actual needs. In fact, a detailed needs analysis that evaluates your specific situation, will likely show that any employer-provided coverage falls short.

In addition, the amount of group insurance offered is almost always reduced, sometimes dramatically, when you retire. You could one day find yourself without coverage, and if your health has changed (which it will as you age), you might also find yourself unable to secure individual protection. At the very least, it will definitely be more expensive.

While group life insurance can help, it does not replace the need for individually owned life insurance. I'll be happy to meet with you and provide a no-cost needs analysis, so you'll know exactly where you stand.

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney (Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
