CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

As a nation, we find ourselves doing some soul-searching. While I think it is healthy and constructive to study and learn from history, what I see happening I believe is unhealthy and destructive. I can't help but wonder if some day in the not too distant future there will be a discussion to change the name of our Order. After all, some would say the knights were Medieval male-chauvinists, and Columbus is now being called into question for his treatment of slaves and Native Americans.

While the Church, being a collection of sinners, has tragically had individuals who were prejudiced, every layer of her teachings and documents is against bigotry, hatred and violence. The Knights as defenders of the Church proclaim and defend the same Truth.

There are two aspects of the current controversy that deeply disturb me. The first is that there is no serious debate. There is no discussion between different points of view. One side has made a decision and has it taken upon themselves to implement their decision. That is anarchy and tyranny. The other flaw is arrogance. There seems to be a trend to believe that if we erase every flaw of the past we somehow magically become better people. In other words, because we criticize people of the past for their sins, and EVERY figure of the past has sins, people today believe that they are better. Ironically, that hints of the creation of a super race, a philosophy that spawned some of greatest hatred and evil the world has ever known.

I don't know if the name of our Order will ever come under scrutiny, but encourage all of us to simply continue to be true to the principles of our Order and our Church. There is no doubt that our country's past is not perfect and even includes embarrassing moments, but the same is true today. A better approach would be to work together to become better. The ultimate goal of our Order and of being Catholic is to be holy. To be holy is not be perfect or better than someone else, but as a sinner relying upon God's mercy, to use God's grace to become the best that He can make us!

Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

The news of the world, the pressures of everyday life, and there are those days I feel I can do nothing right. My choice of words, my actions and the direction in which I move at times seem to cause others to be confused or in pain. As a father, as a husband, as a man, where do I go and how do I continue to move forward?

MY LORD GOD,

I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road though I may know nothing about it. Therefore I will trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.

Thomas Merton

You are not alone! You have never been alone, since the day you were Baptized. He will always be with you! The Holy Spirit, sent by God at the request of Jesus Christ, was given to you at your Baptism. Jesus' love, selflessness and patience can be manifested in our lives by the power of the Holy Spirit. Let Him guide you. You have surrounded yourself with these brother Knights, men who are a lot like you. Men being tested, men having their own trials, but like you we are all men of faith. Trust in God and he will lead you down the right path.

Vivat Jesus, Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

Update Your Beneficiaries

Sometimes it is easy to overlook the simplest of things.

Take, for example, the beneficiaries on your life insurance policies. If your policy was applied for and issued several years ago, it may very well be that the person you originally selected as the beneficiary is no longer the person you would want to receive the policy proceeds. If you bought the policy when you were single, for example, you may have named your parents as beneficiaries. If you have since married, your policies should be updated to reflect your spouse as beneficiary. Maybe you've had children since, who are not named on the policies.

Most people list a primary beneficiary, who is specifically designated as the first in priority to receive policy proceeds. We also encourage the naming of a contingent beneficiary, an alternate person designated to receive policy proceeds, usually in the event that the original beneficiary pre-deceases the insured.

I routinely call all of my policyholders for annual review appointments, usually near the anniversary date of your policy – that is, the date it was originally issued. One of the matters that I'll discuss during this review is the status of your beneficiary designations. If they need updating, and they often do, I can complete the paperwork during that appointment.

I look forward to meeting with each of you to discuss your family's needs.

Jonathan Pandolfo

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney

(Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
 the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
 to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
