District Deputy Corner

- Greetings Brother Knights

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year Brother Knights!

Brothers we need to be leaders in strengthening our parish, and be able to bring the message of Knighthood to all. These are difficult times, and our role within our family, parish, and community is even more needed as Men of Faith. God bless each of you, and your families during this Thanksgiving, and Christmas season!

- For Leave No Neighbor Behind reports: go to <https://www.surveygizmo.com/s3/5521191/Leave-No-Neighbor-Behind>.
- For some of your Training needs click on: <http://craigmod.us/fstraining>
- All Councils are asked to recruit at least one candidate
- Grand Knights need to check our THE GUIDELINES FOR COUNCIL MEETINGS, as this is a new revision that Supreme has suggested.
- With dues notices being sent out, make certain that your Retention Committee has a list of names and phone numbers for your 'no-show, or non-paying members' that they can check on.

Congratulations Council 15343 (Us) for being awarded the Texas State Council & Charities Quick Start Honor Roll Award for the fraternal year of 2019-2020

This award is presented to Councils who meet their charitable obligations and documentation timely (and often before it's ever due). This award exemplifies the dedication and efforts put forth by it's officers and active members.

Our Council also received the Columbian & Founders Award for 2019-2020

This award is presented to Councils that excels with recruitment, and new insurance members. Picture of award will be presented with our December newsletter.

As editor/creator of this newsletter (The Knights Review) over the past several years, it appears that it's becoming increasingly more difficult to find Brother Knight officers willing to submit articles, or information to publish in it. Thus making it the editor's responsibility to create something to fill the void. It also appears that readership is either low, or nonexistent. So, unless interest changes, I will discontinue doing this monthly service. Thanks to those that encouraged me over the years. God Bless!
