October 2017 Grand Knight Report

Brother Knights, this is the first newsletter in a while so we have some catching up to do. Please help me by taking a critical look at this issue and letting me know about corrections and modifications we should make.

We want to highlight the November 16 presentation by Deputy Grand Knight Pete Colombo on his recent trip to Poland. Pete's first-hand view of the Catholic Church in Poland and the state of the country today will be of interest to everyone. This will be an open Knights' meeting so bring your families to this event in the library of the school.

We also want to welcome new First Degree Knights Matt Ownby, Brother Knight Bill Allington's son-in-law, and Walt Hanson, long-time SJN parishioner.

Knight and Family of the Month for October

Knight of the Month: David Hetrick

Family of the Month: Dick and Mary Ann Groves

Coming Up in the Next Month

October 30 -- 2nd Degree at St Marys in Oak Ridge

November 2 -- Council Business Meeting

November 5 - Knights' Breakfast

November 11 - Flag Retirement Ceremony @ 3:00

November 12 - 4th Degree Meeting at SJN

November 16 - Council Informal Meeting

Deputy Grand Knight, Pete Colombo, will present his recent trip to Poland. This is an open meeting - families are invited.

Program Reports

From October 5 --

Bruce Soderburg: Tuesday October 24, is the TN Right to Life Banquet. The guest Speaker will be Shauna Prewitt. Make reservations at www.proLIFEknox.org. $50 per person.

Paul Hughes: November 11 at 3:00 is the Retirement of Flags ceremony. ROTC from UT will be at the ceremony. The scouts will also be involved.

From October 19 ---

Church (Paul Hughes): Veterans Day Flag Retirement service will be November 11 (as announced previously). Everything is in place with numerous organizations participating.

Tuesday is the Right to Life Banquet - Bruce Soderburg and his wife will attend.

Membership (Bob Seyer) - there has been no communication from anyone recently. He will have a recruitment drive after mass soon.

Report from Wen (given by GK): Mentioned that the facility at Huntsville is undergoing renovations. The capabilities will be greatly enhanced. The GK also mentioned that the folks at The Good Neighbors Shop have a van that they will use to haul stuff for us.

Pete Colombo will give a talk on Poland at the November 16 meeting. He gave us a sample of what he will talk about - you do not want to miss it. This will be an open meeting.
