June 10 Meeting Highlights

Grand Knight, James Borzak opened the meeting at 6pm with opening prayers.

He discussed the Pasta Dinner scheduled for Sunday 6/23. He reminded members that tickets were available to purchase.

JP Kidwell announced that Richard Langton had accepted the position of Insurance Agent and resigned as incoming Deputy Grand Knight.

JP announced Chris Bell accepted the position of incoming Deputy Grand Knight.

Tony Terbruggen accepted the role of Chancellor for the upcoming fraternal year. A vote was taken and approved for the new officer changes.

JP Kidwell Inducted as Grand Knight

First let me begin by introducing myself to all of you with a few short stories that have helped form me:

I come from a large Catholic family where I was the second oldest of 8 kids (4 boys with 4 girls). One of the many places I grew up was in Marietta, GA. Before cell phones we used to get calls on the home phone starting about age 7 or so. This was fine as long as your first name wasn't John like my father!

One Saturday morning my Mom announce they were going to hold a very important meeting and the 8 is enough crowd (the Kidwell kids) attendance was mandatory. You can imagine all eight of us were blaming each other for whatever was to come thinking that we were all at fault but blaming each other. My Mom and Dad come in and my Mother sits down and my Dad asked me to stand up and I did with knees shaking and pointed at me and said "from now on we are all going to call this Kidwell, JP" Dad went on to explain how disrupting it was for him to be called to the phone each time one of my friends wanted to speak with me. Little did I know at the time that the nick name JP would stay with me my entire life. The first 20 years or so working was tough because everyone thought I was just trying to be a yuppie. Over the years I bet I've told this true life story hundreds of times!

Had fond memories growing up in Marietta especially our Parish St. Joseph's where my older Brother Tim and I were alter servers (latin) and we all went to school at St. Joseph's. All the alter boys were taken to see the Globetrotters by our Pastor Fr. Biggers to downtown Atlanta which was a really big deal for a future

Grand Knight Corner A Farewell from Grand Knight, James Borzak

James Borzak
Grand Knight

It has been my pleasure and an honor to serve as your Grand Knight for the Columbian year 2018-2019. We had a change in our programs transitioning from "Surge in Service" to "Faith in Action". While this transition was a challenge the support of officers and the Knights made this challenge less cumbersome.

Our June 10 reunion meeting was well attended. It was great to see the Knights who attended. Joe Simone provided great food for the event.

June was a great month. We welcomed five new Knights into our council. These new members have allowed us to meet our quota of new Knights. I appreciate all the efforts you provided to bring in new Knights.

hockey player like me (played full contact basketball in Canada). In 1963 I was asked to take some papers to the office by my teacher who was a Nun and at the office they told me President Kennedy had just been shot in Dallas. Most of us remember major events where we were when they happened. A happy memory was the fundraiser our Parish put on and all students participated in selling magazines and as a 5th grader I won the school prize for selling the most. I guess sales was my calling at an early age. My, how times have changed because we would never have let our young kids go (door to door) to do that today and we would not have let our boys walk to and from Church (up hill both ways, just "kidwelling" y'all) to serve daily Mass throughout the summer. One of the rewards as kids that my Mom would get us if we were behaving was a trip to the famous (to us) Dog N Suds hot dogs & root beer original fast food stand! My Parents favorite line to get us to behave was "Get a long little doggies". You can tell that I've rewarded myself with food too much! Note I've had to use this line as a Knight to help smooth over a few situations.

One of the finest complements received from my Parents was they said I was like Saint Barnabas the Encourager! Barnabas is one my favorite Saints along with St. Thomas the Apostle that I chose as my confirmation name.

I was born in Washington DC have lived in 12 cities with my wife Cheryl married 44 years. God has blessed us with 5 kids and 8 grandkids. I have been to 5 grade schools, 6 high schools (including Jr. High) 1 University York in Toronto, Ontario Canada. My Parent's moved 5 times during my grade school years also. Needless to say I had to adapt at a young age and had a great childhood and an even better life with our own family because I stole the best from Canada (Cheryl) and came back home to the good old US of Eh! I am American!

Very fortunate to have had a successful career working for three Fortune 500 companies (Pillsbury, Miller Brewing Company and Ralston Purina) in all their corporate headquarters in Merchandising, Procurement, Sales Planning and Marketing and in National Account Sales leading teams to close North Americas largest Retailers!

Always wanted to run my own company and have purchased the rights for a Master Distributorship for the USA and Canada selling Soft Skill Programs for New Heroes.com B2B through HR Departments (and key contacts) that know major corporations. Will also be selling programs by SkillBott in the Southeast. Contract being prepared and expected next week. Nothing ventured nothing gained.

My number one goal as your Grand Knight is not to win Awards but to have our Council be the place that all Priests, Ministries, Parishioners and people in need within our community come and work with us to help solve issues/problems together. Please know we cannot write checks for every cause but we can help volunteer like we did with Hope For Rebecca to help achieve some of the specific needs of our Parish and Community.

Some of my favorite sayings are:

- "Be Professional"
- "The definition of sales is ethical persuasion"
- "Don't judge people by the way they treat you, judge them how they treat everyone" ie. Waiters/Waitresses, Nurses, Cashiers, Postal Employees and Janitors.
- "My Momma didn't raise no fool! Yes she did, she raised your brother"
- "An elephant never forgets" (Will have to change this one the older I get)

Let's have fun and go out and make a real difference this Columbian Year and remember that we are a Fraternal Brotherhood and whatever position you serve as a Knight in Council 12942 we need to develop our new Knights. You will be asked to participate in a number of new programs that will be presented on July 8th at our next Council meeting by our skilled and dedicated new Council Officers.

Understand we cannot answer all questions at every meeting but want to start by asking that you send in your questions to me by Monday July 1st and we will try to answer them all before the meeting to save time and be able to research the info.

JP Kidwell
Grand Knight (GK)

Vivat Jesus

Please welcome our new brothers Michael Rooney, Dante Lava, Emilio Lopez, Patrick Welsh, Drew Allhouse and Brian Piszczek.

Our Sir Knights served two masses for Confirmation on June 15. Thank Sir Knights for your service. This month also included a fundraiser "Hope for Rebecca" the Knights worked all masses for two plus weeks selling pasta dinner tickets and getting contributions through the red bucket donations. A separate note will provide more information.

June 23 had our Officers Installation. Worthy District Deputy handled the installation and Father Pail Alger provided the blessing of medals and officers.

June 30 will be our annual awards dinner. We will honor our Knights who served the council. The Knight of the Month for June is Tony Terbruggen; Family of Month is Joe & Patti Simone.

We could not have reached our goals without the help of my Deputy Grand Knight and Program Director JP Kidwell. JP Kidwell as Grand Knight the next year will do an excellent job serving our Council. His DGK and Program Director Chris Bell will provide continued support.

Thank you again for your support. Vivat Jesus for Rebecca

On June 23 the Knights held our "Hope for Rebecca" pasta dinner and fundraiser.

We had an amazing support of parishioners. Over 63 Knights and Wife's worked the dinner, dessert table, tickets sales, and donations. In fact, providing a total now is a challenge because donations are still being made by Parishioners and others.

Our Council will present a check to Rebecca and Anthony at our July 8th monthly meeting. Please arrive by 6:30pm to begin dinner. The check presentation will be at 6:45pm, after which dinner will continue until the start of the meeting.

To my Brother Knights and their wives-

It's amazing how much was accomplished by our awesome council in one month, a thought from Joe Simone, Fr Matthew's approval and all your help.

Rebecca and I are very grateful for all the time dedicated for a successful fundraiser and pasta dinner, which was delicious.

Please continue to keep Rebecca in your prayers.

Thank you & God Bless!

Anthony & Rebecca

A Heavenly Perspective from Anthony

"When I walked into the social hall this past Friday to help with the pasta dinner preparation, there where about a dozen of our Brother Knights wives rolling Italian meatballs, then Sunday sharing an Italian meal with my Catholic friends, this is my exact image of Heaven"

Casino Night - August 23, 2019

Casino Night is August 23. Registration is now opened. Tickets and sponsorships are available online at <https://www.accelevents.com/e/CasinoNight>.

As we have in the past years, we are asking our ministries to put together auction baskets.

This year we are making it even easier for you—choose a theme, gather the items, then drop them at the church and we will assemble the baskets for you!

If you have many members, you may choose a few themes, if you have just a few, go with a smaller basket idea. I have created a listing of auction basket ideas, complete with pictures and suggested items for the baskets. You do not have to stick to these themes, just an idea to help get you started.

The ever fabulous Barbara Gordon will be helping me with the baskets this year. Her email is barbaradgordon@aol.com

Also, please let your ministry members know that they may begin purchasing tickets and encourage their participation with this event. We can hold about 300 people at the event, so let's fill it up!!

A personal message from Br Christopher Gronotte

Brother Christopher Gronotte's Journey to the Priesthood Culminates on July 27th

Dear Friends in Christ,

Greetings from Rome, where I will only be for less than a week! This morning I took my last exam for theology! It was such a relief to get all my studies over with!

I am full of mixed emotions of leaving the community of over 200 brothers here who have become great friends. But at the same time, very excited to be starting my new mission!

Maybe some of you already know, but my next assignment will be at Sacred Heart

Apostolic School, our minor seminary in Rolling Prairie, Indiana. I will be working there with the boys, trying to help them in their formation in whatever way I can. Please keep me in your prayers and especially the boys who will have to put up with me!

I also want to remind you about the diaconate ordination which will be on July 27th. If you are able to make it, please RSVP on this webpage: <https://sacredheartapostolic-school.org/events/ordinations/>

I didn't have this in mind before, but you will be able to see and visit the school where I will be working. That is the location of the reception luncheon after the ordination!

Count on my prayers and please pray for me!

God bless,
Br Christopher, LC

*An important message from
Dan Jozwiak, Past Grand Knight*

Brothers,

Penny and I will be attending the Diaconate Ordination for Brother Christopher on July 27, 2019. If you would like us to bring a card, cash or check for delivery to Brother Christopher, I would be happy to pick them up at our July 8th meeting. If you would be writing a check please make it out to Christopher Gronotte. Thank you.

Remembering Kevin Athaide

by Bill Kelly

This is a remembrance of our ministry leader, Kevin Lius Athaide who died 6 years ago on June 13, 2013.

Kevin Athaide taught us by the way he lived his life. Kevin was a wise teacher and a passionate seeker of Unity. Kevin was our leader in the work of uniting immigrants and volunteers to teach English and Life Skills.

In 2005, Kevin along with Sister Joan Daly, established the Our Family Program, a ministry of St. Brendan's Catholic Church. The ministry reaches out to immigrant women bringing them together with volunteers to learn English and life skills needed in the US.

In the ten years we were involved with the Our Family Program, hundreds of women studied English, some got their GED, others achieved US Citizenship; all because of the efforts of one man and his vision of including and uniting everyone.

Joanie Diaz Fagan was part of the leadership of the Our Family Program from the beginning. Joanie recalls a conversation in which Kevin spoke about his own experiences of being an immigrant:

"He remembered how Irish Catholic immigrants in the Bronx help him navigate 'life in the United States' His mission was to give back and reciprocate his experience many years forward; without even knowing immigration issues.

Kevin was a fearless leader that taught by example; without even knowing or acknowledging his amazing power. He did not know how his vision and his faith made and impact in his Parish, the community; and how his teachings made leaders like myself.

Grateful forever. He has been instrumental in my life because of his leadership. He did not even know his impact in others just leading by example."

Three days before Kevin died, Monday, June 10th, 2013, Kevin invited Joanie Diaz Fagan, Rose Kelly my wife and me to visit him in the bedroom of his home. He knew his time was short, but he insisted we come that Monday. We rushed over to see him.

Kevin laughed and the mood in the room lifted. We talked with him more about what he felt was important for us to remember and what he might like us to do. In retrospect, we know, that it was with his last breaths that Kevin asked all of us to work hard for Unity.

On July 9th, 2013, Kevin's friends, teachers, students and supporters of the Our Family Program celebrated a memorial service at St. Brendan's Catholic Church for him.

Kevin's dream may have been for all of us to come together in communion and solidarity. At that Mass, thirteen of Kevin's friends, many recent immigrants, celebrated his life by each praying publicly in their own language from the ambo in the sanctuary for Unity, Justice and Peace. Voices and words in English, Spanish, French, Italian, K'iche, Polish, Igbo, German, Korean, Tagalog, Vietnamese, and an Indian language echoed in that church asking the Holy Spirit to bring us together.

Perhaps, one thing we can all do is to draw ourselves closer to that same warming Spirit then prayerfully remember that all hearts are one, including the one who made us?
