Brothers,

October was a busy month with the International food festival, Coats for Kids, recruiting weekend and knights social. Thank you for helping with these events. Our volunteers are the only way we can help support our parish of St. Brendan's.

November will be another busy month. Please volunteer and help where you can. We will not have a First-Degree Exemplification at our monthly business meeting on November 12. Therefore, we will meet in our normal facility.

Recruitment

A reminder that all Knights should be trying to recruit new members on a regular basis. Recruiting is vital to support the programs which we are actively involved. Your help in recruiting a fellow parishioner, or family member also allows you to be actively involved in vetting our candidates as a good fit into the Knights of Columbus and mentoring him into our council. We have a long way to go to meet our goals in new members.

Wishing all the best for our Knights and their family for this Thanksgiving.

Financial Protection

NOW, I'D LIKE to turn our attention inward. Once again, the growth of our life insurance program was impressive.

When I was elected supreme knight, I said that we have a moral obligation to offer membership in the Knights of Columbus to every eligible Catholic man. And today, I tell you we have a similar obligation to offer our greatest fraternal benefit — Knights of Columbus Insurance — to every eligible Catholic man.

Our assets under management are more than $24 billion. Our surplus is up by $188 million to more than $2.1 billion. We are ranked among the Fortune 1,000 list of America's largest companies.

And just recently, Standard & Poor's listed the Knights of Columbus as one of the six strongest life insurance companies in North America — putting us at the very top of the industry.

Father McGivney knew from personal experience how uncertain a family's life can be.

If we are to be faithful to the vision of Father McGivney, then we all have the responsibility to ensure that every brother Knight can secure the financial future of his family.

Our mission is to help every brother Knight be a responsible steward, so if the unexpected happens, his home is secure, his wife is protected, and his children have a promising future.

I'm especially proud of our recognition by the Ethisphere Institute as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies for 2018. The Knights of Columbus has received that distinction for five straight years, and is one of just three insurance companies so honored.

Pope Francis has challenged Catholics to take up what he calls "an ethics of fraternity." This is also the vision of Father McGivney. And this is what we have been doing for more than 135 years.

We should remember that in Father McGivney's day there were already insurance companies in Connecticut. He could have referred his parishioners to one of these companies. But he did not. Father McGivney wanted something different. He wanted something new. He wanted something distinctly Catholic.

Father McGivney wanted a new Catholic fraternity that would transform the practical men of his day into a committed brotherhood of men capable of helping each other.

That is what he founded, and that is what we remain today.

At the Knights of Columbus, we have developed a strong, successful business model based upon "an ethics of fraternity." It is what we mean when we say

"insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights."

This same ethic applies to Knights of Columbus Asset Advisors. Established just three years ago, Asset Advisors is now a go-to advisor for more than 200 dioceses, religious orders and other organizations, offering them a way to invest consistent with our shared respect for life, human dignity, family and religious freedom.

Respect For Life Ministry

Baby Saved!

We don't always get to see the bountiful harvest our prayers and fasting are reaping...but during most of our 40-day public prayer vigils we do at least once!!

This was the case on Friday, Oct. 12th, while prayer volunteers from St. Brigid's and Holy Cross Catholic Churches were keeping vigil, backed up by the many others who are praying and fasting from home! This story is based on the testimony of Cathy Schneider, a "sidewalk counselor" and Respect Life Coordinator at St. Brigid's.

When Kenny and Jasmine, who is 6-7 weeks pregnant, came to Feminist Womens Health Center ("FEMS") on Friday morning, Oct. 12th, they encountered the loving presence of Jesus reaching out to them through Cathy and the prayer vigil volunteers.

Cathy was able to get Kenny to come talk with her, at which time he explained that they have a 7 month old and it would be hard financially to have another baby so soon. "He just said it was bad timing and they thought they would abort this baby and try again in a year and the kids could be more spread apart," Cathy shared. He also told Cathy that he didn't want the abortion, but Jasmine did.

The Holy Spirit gave Cathy these points to share with Kenny and lovingly encourage him to go in the clinic and get them out:

It's so important that he tell Jasmine that 1) He does not want the abortion, 2) He will stand by her and be there, 3) They can do this together.

- It is really not in a mom's DNA to want to kill her child; she is probably scared.
- Statistics show that 85% of women say they felt they had no choice and felt pressured to abort.
- Couples who go through an abortion together statistically do not make it. It is hard to stay together when they have this deep wound between them.
- The physical, emotional and spiritual side effects of abortion on women, including miscarriage.
- How wonderful it is to have babies close together because they are usually great friends and can grow up together and play together.

This next part needs to be verbatim in Cathy's own words:

"I asked him what he would do if I came to his house and was going to hurt his 7 month old baby. Of course he said he would stop me. I showed him the tiny rubber baby I had in my hand and said this is about the size of your baby now and it is just in the womb, not born yet. I said, 'Can you please go protect that baby. That baby is precious and needs protecting too.'

I told him I have asked many men to be a hero and go get their girlfriends out of this clinic and a lot of them don't do it. I told him I thought he would do it. I knew he was brave enough and loved her. I offered and He took all the information I had in my hand and the tiny baby...

He asked me if he could have my 'beads' (my rosary) and I said yes of course! I pressed the rosary in his hands and said, 'Now go get her - we are all praying for you and we know you will be courageous...now go get her out of there and let me treat you to breakfast!'"

Baby Saved!

Kenny went inside FEMS and Cathy went over to the prayer vigil volunteers to ask them all to pray for Kenny and Jasmine.

And then, in Cathy's words....

"...he returned a short time later with his arm around her walking out of the clinic!!! I started jumping up and down and pumping my fist in the air saying, 'Yes!' over and over again! I was praising God, 'Thank you, Lord, thank you, Lord!', and the prayer warriors all started clapping. Jasmine put her hand over her mouth and was crying. They came and gave me a big hug!!! They were BEAMING!!!"

Cathy then took them to breakfast at Chick-fil-A where she learned more about their life and current circumstances:

"They are engaged. They are both working. They live in Lithonia. The whole time she just kept sighing and saying she was so happy. He had his arm around her when they were talking to me and she leaned her head in on him. Praise God this man was a warrior for his child and stood up and got her out of there and stood by her. She really did not want to do it. She was so relieved.

She said they were going to go tell her parents. ... I asked her if she would have told her mom about the abortion. She adamantly said NO, and I said, 'Well your mom wants those grandbabies - you will see, she will be so happy for you.' That's when she mentioned her mom was a nurse at Emory and would not have liked the abortion idea.

Kenny said his dad was not around at all when he was growing up and he was making things different for his kids. I thanked him for standing by her and being a dad to his children - that we needed more men to do this.

They were just very happy and so relieved. They were smiling so big."

Please keep this sweet family in your prayers, and stay tuned for our baby shower announcement for them!!
