NEWSLETTER OF THE YEAR

Publication Month – May 2019

COUNCIL 9058 NEWSLETTER

Grand Knight's Report

The Grand Knight reported the council has grown by 10% over the past two years. We have met our goals each year. He stated that as leaders we need to keep our fellow brothers engaged so they continue to stay active. He stated that we need new leaders to ensure all are participating. The council was informed that the Grand Knight appoints all directors and committees and changes have been made. The Grand Knight announced Brother Nick Sarbanis will no longer be the Program Director and Deputy Grand Knight Dan Beaulé will be the interim until the new Program Director is appointed in a couple months. Brother Nick is also out as Golf Tournament Director. The Grand Knight appointed Brother Bobby DiMattia to direct all aspects. Brother Nick Sarbanis has also been removed for the Scholarship Committee. That will now be headed up by Brother John Kiesling. This is all in an effort to infuse new energy and bring fresh ideas.

The Grand Knight then reported he and the Deputy Grand Knight attended the State Convention. He stated that it continues to be routine reports. The reports this year indicate membership growth is projected to meet the State goals. A new Slate of Officers was elected. Service awards were issued and our council was a recipient of the 3rd place for our Council Newsletter.

Stories of Faith

In September of 2005, on the first day of school, Martha Cothren, a History teacher at Robinson High School in Little Rock, did something not to be forgotten. On the first day of school, with the permission of the school superintendent, the principal and the building supervisor she removed all of the desks in her classroom.

When the first period kids entered the room they discovered that there were no desks.

'Ms. Cothren, where are our desks?'

She replied, 'You can't have a desk until you tell me how you earn the right to sit at a desk.'

They thought, 'Well, maybe it's our grades' 'No,' she said.

'Maybe it's our behavior.' She told them, 'No, it's not even your behavior.'

And so, they came and went, the first period, second period, third period. Still no desks in the classroom. Kids called their parents to tell them what was happening and by early afternoon television news crews had started gathering at the school to report about this crazy teacher who had taken all the desks out of her room.

The final period of the day came and as the puzzled students found seats on the floor of the desk-less classroom. Martha Cothren said, 'Throughout the day, no one has been able to tell me just what he or she has done to earn the right to sit at the desks that are ordinarily found in this classroom. Now I am going to tell you.'

At this point, Martha Cothren went over to the door of her classroom and opened it. Twenty-seven (27) U.S. Veterans, all in uniform, walked into that classroom, each one carrying a school desk. The Vets began placing the school desks in rows, and then they would walk over and stand alongside the wall. By the time the last soldier had set the final desk in place those kids started to understand, perhaps for the first time in their lives, just how the right to sit at those desks had been earned.

Martha said, 'You didn't earn the right to sit at these desks. These heroes did it for you. They placed the desks here for you. They went halfway around the world, giving up their education and interrupting their careers and families so you could have the freedom you have. Now, it's up to you to sit in them. It is your responsibility to learn, to be good students, to be good citizens. They paid the price so that you could have the freedom to get an education. Don't ever forget it.'

By the way, this is a true story. And this teacher was awarded the Veterans of Foreign Wars Teacher of the Year for the State of Arkansas in 2006. She is the daughter of a WWII POW.

Let us always remember the men and women of our military and the rights they have won for us.

PUZZLES BY THE SMC

1. When the day after tomorrow is yesterday, today will be as far from Wednesday as today was from Wednesday when the day before yesterday was tomorrow. What is the day after this day?
2. You saw me where I could not be. Yet, often you see me. What am I?

3. Susan and Diane decided to play tennis against each other. The bet $1 on each game they played. Susan won three bets and Diane won $5. How many games did they play?

On The Lighter Side

Teacher: "If I gave you 2 cats and another 2 cats and another 2, how many would you have?"

Johnny: "Seven."

Teacher: "No, listen carefully... If I gave you two cats, and another two cats and another two, how many would you have?"

Johnny: "Seven."

Teacher: "Let me put it to you differently. If I gave you two apples, and another two apples and another two, how many would you have?"

Johnny: "Six."

Teacher: "Good. Now if I gave you two cats, and another two cats and another two, how many would you have?"

Johnny: "Seven!"

Teacher: "Johnny, where in the heck do you get seven from?!"

Johnny: "Because I've already got a freaking cat!"

Mr. and Mrs. Brown had two sons. One was named Mind Your Own Business & the other was named Trouble. One day the two boys decided to play hide and seek. Trouble hid while Mind Your Own Business counted to one hundred. Mind Your Own Business began looking for his brother behind garbage cans and bushes. Then he started looking in and under cars until a police man approached him and asked, "What are you doing?" "Playing a game," the boy replied. "What is your name?" the officer questioned. "Mind Your Own Business." Furious the policeman inquired, "Are you looking for trouble?!" The boy replied, "Why, yes."
