NEWSLETTER OF THE YEAR

Publication Month – June 2019

COUNCIL 9058 NEWSLETTER

Grand Knight's Report

The Grand Knight reported this would be his last meeting of this fraternal year. He indicated after nominations and election results are tallied, we will have a new slate for a fresh start to the new Fraternal year. He went on to reiterate what the District Deputy charges were to all the new officers to make all decisions with the benefit of the council and the good of the Order being paramount. It was taken seriously, never acting without corroboration and collaboration with fellow officers. He had a steep learning curve at the beginning with a lot of tasks to accomplish, planning new and existing activities, budgetary tasks and many reports to prepare and submit. There were all kinds of reports from State and Supreme. Luckily the Financial Secretary took care of many Supreme level reports. Membership has grown and we have met our quota the last two years. Our council currently consists of:

- Twenty seven 4th degree Knights
- Fifty-six 3rd degree Knights
- Nine 2nd degree Knights
- Twenty 1st degree Knights

The Grand Knight prepared for all meetings including business, planning and committee and as Grand Knight was a member of all committees participating in most of those meetings. He found it a daunting task and at times very challenging. But by telling us what the job entailed, cautioned us to consider the job required while choosing the best person to assume the leadership role of Grand Knight. Elections will be held under New Business.

The Grand Knight reported that although he will still be part of the Council, he would be serving as District Warden.

Stories of Faith

In many families, mothers are the spiritual force, but let us not forget the faith of our fathers, often in the background while others lead from the front. On this Father's Day, I remember the lessons from my father, Pablo, who continues to volunteer at the church food pantry and encourages those down on their luck. He taught me to make the most of my faith and God and life's second chances. He is always praying for his children, offering counsel and teaching us to follow our call in life.

My Uncle Felix, who passed away several years ago, showed me how to stand up for my convictions but never to let them get in the way of loving others. Uncle Adolfo, also home with the Lord, was an example of a man who adhered to the calling of God in his life and had an impact upon thousands. But he never forgot to love and care for his family. These men lived their faith and showed me how to love my family, work hard and have higher dreams for my children.

In Scripture, one of the great parables in the Gospel depicts a loving father who sees his prodigal son, from a distance, returning home. He runs out to welcome his son with open arms and throws a party for the one who was lost but now found. His other son, the one who stayed home and worked, took offense at the celebration for the brother who had left. But his father reminded him that everything he had belonged to both his sons. This is a great example of love in action and also illustrates the unconditional love God has for all His children.

We don't all have the same kind of family experiences, but wherever you can find love from a father or father figure, let's honor their faith on Father's Day.

PUZZLES BY THE SMC

1. I speak without a mouth and hear without ears. I have no body, but I come alive with wind. What am I?
2. I have cities but no houses. I have mountains but no trees. I have water but no fish. What am I?

On The Lighter Side

A boy is selling fish on a corner. To get his customers' attention, he is yelling, "Dam fish for sale! Get your dam fish here!" A pastor hears this and asks, "Why are you calling them 'dam fish.'" The boy responds, "Because I caught these fish at the local dam." The pastor buys a couple fish, takes them home to his wife, and asks her to cook the dam fish. The wife responds surprised, "I didn't know it was acceptable for a preacher to speak that way." He explains to her why they are dam fish. Later at the dinner table, he asks his son to pass the dam fish. He responds, "That's the spirit, Dad! Now pass the f*cking potatoes!"

A bus full of ugly people had a head on collision with a truck. When they died, God granted all of them one wish. The first person said, "I want to be gorgeous." God snapped his fingers and it happened. The second person said the same thing and God did the same thing. This went on and on throughout the group. God noticed the last man in line was laughing hysterically. By the time God got to the last ten people, the last man was laughing and rolling on the ground. When the man's turn came, he laughed and said, "I wish they were all ugly again."
