Grand Knight's Report

The bar is open on Thursday nights. The Social Club will be promoting a new class of membership for the organization. There will be a prearranged fee along with the service.

We need to bring in more members. The Knight of the Month is Tom Fresselli. Congratulations Tom! We are currently planning more work parties for the Hall.

Admission's Report

We have one application for admission to the council. John Torres is being sponsored by Joseph Turano. The move for his nomination passed unanimously at the November meeting. We are planning for a first degree at our December meeting.

Turkey Day Run Report

The committee would like to move the expo to the Marion Square. We are under budget at the moment and currently have 2,000 race registrations. We have more sponsorships this year, which is a record year for us.

Chancellor's Report

We have two seminarians we support with Andrew Fryml and Rhett Williams. We have cut their first checks and will be cut their second checks at the November meeting.

Trustee's Report

We finally have the upstairs of the Hall cleaned up.

Church Director's Report

We have a spot for the rosary dinner. It will be at the Daughters in December.

Field Agent's Report

We reached 100 Billion dollars for our Insurance program on November 3rd.

District Deputy's Report

We received the Columbian Award for 2014-2015. We need to start a Retention Committee for the Council.

Unfinished Business

We currently tabled a motion for our participation in Operation Hope. We must participate in some way to Operation Hope. We would like to limit our participation in Operation Hope. There is a motion to limit our Operation Hope donation to $1,000, so that more can be given to our charities. The motion failed.

New Business

Rhett Williams would like to attend World Youth Day in the Summer of 2016. There is a motion to give $1,000 to Rhett Williams for his trip to World Youth Day. We will be getting more information next month.

The St. Patrick's Day Parade has been going on for 20 years. The money raised will be going to the Irish American Studies program at the College of Charleston. There is a plaque being made for the Addlestone Library for the 100 year anniversary for Bishop England.

The Columbus Club needs to elect new officers. The nominated persons are Dan Metzler, Bill Godshaw, and Tyson Dutton. The board has been passed.

We will be forgoing a Christmas Party with the children. We want to put on a Holiday dinner with One 80 Place in lieu of that event. This event is geared toward veterans. It will be a potluck dinner. Veterans will be speaking on their experience.

Business Meeting

The next business meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 2 at the Hall. We have a Regularly Scheduled business meeting at 6:30pm. Dinner will be served at 7:30pm. We will begin with a First Degree at 6pm. If you have not been by for a while, come and see what's new! It's always great to see old friends.

For Good Of The Order

We need to remember all our brothers and families who may be sick and in distress. If you or if you know of a brother who is sick or in distress please notify Grand Knight, Patrick Rogers at 843-729-8098

Many Knights were affected by the flooding statewide. We are working with the Red Cross to help out Knights in need. Please keep them all in your prayers. (10/7/15)
