Issue 31 Number 5

Grand Knight Message

Brothers,

The Council has been busy last two months...we had five brothers take the Formation degree, and four advanced to the Knighthood Degree. We also hosted the Public Safety Dinner to honor our Police, Fire Fighters/ Paramedics, Sheriffs, and Dispatch employees.

May continues to be busy with the State Convention on the first weekend of May, the Mother's Day Breakfast, and our Appreciation Dinner. If anyone is interested in attending the Appreciation Dinner and has not signed up, the signup sheet is in the in lounge, or email me at david.kerstetter2@verizon.net by May 13.

We are still looking for a few officer slots to be filled for the next fraternal year; if interested, contact the Deputy Grand Knight.

Vivat Jesu,

David Kerstetter, Grand Knight

Deputy Grand Knight Message

Brothers,

We have one last event to plan and do, and that is the Consecration to the Holy Family. That should solidify our grasp on the Columbian award. If they awarded the Columbian award like they do the Star Council award, we would get at least two Cees, like a council would get two Stars.

This space is usually reserved for my continuous plea for bingo help and promotion of our brand (the KofC) in our Parishes, but this month I am not going to do that. The Grand Knight laid out the many opportunities to excel in May, and as soon as I have a reportable plan for the Consecration to the Holy Family program, I'll get that out to everyone.

Please do take time to look over our website, make suggestions, enjoy the photos, etc...

Vivat Jesu!

Rick Schirm, Deputy Grand Knight and Programs Director

“Crucify him” versus “Father forgive them!”

Venerable Brothers, I want us to reflect on “crucify him” versus “Father forgive them!” Crucifixion is an act of execution of a person by nailing or binding the person to a cross; this was performed by the Romans and others. The one to be crucified was stripped naked, and then followed the most awful moment of all. He would be laid upon the cross with his arms stretched along the cross-beams, and at the center of each open palm the point of a huge iron nail was placed, which, by the blow of a mallet, was driven home into the wood. It was unanimously considered as the most horrible form of death and punishment among heathen nations in early centuries. But to a Jew it was regarded as a greatest disgrace and a curse (Deut.21: 22-23). This punishment began by subjecting the sufferer to scourging. In the case of Jesus Christ, however, his scourging was rather before the sentence was passed upon him (Jn. 19:1). When Pontius Pilate declared: “Behold, the man!” the Jews cried out in response “Crucify him, Crucify him!” (Jn. 19:6). Pilate himself was surprised to hear Jews demanding Jesus’ crucifixion, for he stated “I find no guilt in him” (Jn. 19:6). Luke also established Jesus’ innocence in his narrative that Pilate pronounced Jesus’ innocence three times (23:4, 14-16, 22).

Normally, the condemned one carries his own cross to the place of execution, which was outside the city, in some conspicuous place set apart for the purpose. Before the nailing to the cross took place, a medicated cup of vinegar mixed with gall and myrrh was given, for the purpose of deadening the pangs of the sufferer. Our Lord refused this cup, that his senses might be clear (Mat.27:34; Jn.19:29). The accounts given of the crucifixion of our Lord are in entire agreement with the customs and practices of the Romans in such cases. He was crucified between two “malefactors” (Is. 53:12; Lk. 23:32), and was watched by a party of four soldiers (Jn. 19:23, Mt. 27:36;54), with their centurion. The “breaking of the legs” of the malefactors was intended to hasten death, and to put them out of their misery (Jn. 19:31); but the unusual rapidity of our Lord's death (Jn. 19:33) was due to his previous sufferings and his great mental anguish. The omission of the breaking of Jesus’ legs was the fulfilment of a type of Exodus (Ex. 12:46). He literally died of a broken heart, a ruptured heart, and hence the flowing of blood and water from the wound made by the soldier's spear (Jn. 19:34).

On the cross, Jesus Christ uttered seven memorable sentences, namely “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do” (Lk. 23:34). Second, “Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise” (Lk. 23:43). Three, “woman, behold, your son” then he said to the disciple, “behold your mother” (Jn. 19:26-27). Four, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachtani?” (Mat. 27:46) or “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” (Mk. 15:34). Five, “I thirst” (Jn. 19:28). Six, “it is finished” (Jn. 19:30). Seven, “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit” (Lk. 23:46).

According to Luke, the first words Jesus spoke on the cross were “Father, forgive them” (Lk. 23:34). The question is why should Jesus pray for the forgiveness for his enemies? Maybe Jesus wanted to be more practical. Because he himself has taught us to love our enemies and to pray for those who persecute us (Mt. 5:44). In the opinion of Saint Aelred the Abbot, Jesus’ prayer “Father forgive them” is full of warmth, of love and of unshakable serenity. As if, it was not enough to pray for them; he also wanted to make excuses for them. He completed the prayer, saying “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” They are great sinners; yes, but they have little understanding of judgment; therefore, Father, forgive them. They are nailing me to the cross, but they do not know who it is that they are nailing to the cross. If they had known, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory. Therefore, Father, forgive them.

In conclusion, Venerable Brothers, let us follow the good example of Jesus as St. Peter admonishes us that Christ suffered for us and left us an example to follow in his footsteps (1Pt. 2:21-24). Jesus has made it abundantly clear that if we do not forgive others their sins, our heavenly Father will not forgive us (Mt. 6:14). Do we need to hold grudges against those who trespass against us and continue to ask God for mercy? Let us admit that to err is human but to forgive is divine and do our best to forgive one another. As a matter of fact, all human beings have tendency to make mistakes. Therefore, let us do our uppermost best to forgive those who seek to crucify us for no reason, and like Jesus Christ, whenever we hear crucify him we will respond, Father forgive them for they do not know what they are doing!

Life Insurance As a Gift?

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. "How morbid," they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times.

The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you're alive. Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse's quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It's a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (e.g., college tuition, housing, business start-up). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.

Knight of the Month

The Knight of the Month for May is Clem Danish. Clem is a member of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. He started the prayer card ministry a few years ago, which is a card that a member can pick up at the council, put a personal message on it, and send the card at no cost to the person or family that is in need of prayers. These prayer cards have been well received by the membership. Clem adds some fun to Bingo with his dress when he sells instant games. Clem has several different bow ties, suspenders, shirts, and light strings that he wears depending on the holiday that is approaching. Clem also assists at many council events setting up before and cleaning after the event. Congratulations, Clem on being selected as the Council Knight of the Month for May.

Family of the Month

The Council 5480 family of the month is PSD Ron and Pat Gorman. Ron and Pat are very active members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, they are involved in many church ministries. I have relied on Ron's many years of experience in the Council and State Officer chairs to run the Council—his advice is greatly appreciated. Ron has been Treasurer of VKCCI for several years. Pat was co-chair of this year's Our Lady of Mount Carmel School's successful major fund raiser, the dinner/auction held in early April. Pat still attends some of the state meetings with Ron. Ron and Pat are true assets to the Knights of Columbus, Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church and School, and our community. Congratulations PSD Ron and Pat Gorman on being selected as Council 5480 Family of the Month for May.

Now Hear This!

Oh No!	OTBs, casinos, horse tracks, and slot machines are going to run bingo out of business! Or will they? I think if you present a fun event, with entertaining bingo games, interesting progressive games, and fun instant dauber and pull-tab games, we will do just fine. For some time we have been competing with the State's Lotto Tickets and the two lotteries. Recently we have also competed with private clubs in-house gaming machines. And yet we have continued to grow back towards the levels last seen before the State set up a bunch of new rules and regulations. We can still grow and make significant donations to our parishes, Catholic schools, and a wide variety of community programs if we put it at the forefront of our charity-minded, well—minds. Working bingo is work; it can be fun, it can be testy, it can be rewarding and usually all in the same day. The Instants Ticket Counters start their day about 3:00 p.m. with the hall almost already completely set-up, and the Bingo Manager usually hits the exit about Midnight. There are about 12 man-hours of effort put in between each session. We don't need any one person to work forty hours a week, but more like each of us working at least one hour a week. Chip in, or in a lot of cases, chip in some more.
The Degree Team Challenge	Council 5480 was, at one time, one of the best 1st Degree teams in the State and certainly the best on the Peninsula. Time and age have taken a toll on the Team. We can regain our position as the best with a little bit of effort from some new Brother Knights. All team members joined with trepidation on the task before them. Monologues to be memorized, movements to be learned—who has time for all that? Well, the wise men say to eat an elephant, it is best to do it a bite at a time. Come join the team, take baby steps, learn a few of the simpler positions with the goal of moving into a primary position. See the Grand Knight, David Kerstetter or the Deputy Grand Knight Rick Schirm to begin this important journey.
Did You Know?	The Knights of Columbus is celebrating the 1,000th Ultrasound Machine placed in pro-life pregnancy centers. As reported in the most recent edition of the Columbia magazine by the Supreme Knight, Carl Anderson and at the March for Life Rally, the Supreme Knight spoke about the initiative that began in 2009 called the Ultrasound Initiative. He reported that the program has helped save hundred of thousands of lives and foresees a time when over 1 million unborn children will be saved.
Boast	Wear your name badge, wear your Council Shirt, wear your KofC branded gear!!! Boast—you've earned it, Brother.
Scholarship Grants	This year's deadline is 1 June 2019. Come to the Columbian Center to pick up your easy to follow scholarship application and turn it in to the Grand Knight (David Kerstetter), Deputy Grand Knight (Rick Schirm), or Scholarship Chairman (PSD Ron Gorman) by 1 June 2019.
Budget Requests	The 2019-2020 Budget Committee has been collecting input for the next fraternal year's budget. They begin initial deliberations on 1 May, so time is running out to get your requests in.
Mother's Day	Firstly, Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers! Secondly, come join us for a Mother's Day Breakfast that can't be beat. Avoid the crowds, and forget about figuring out the gratuity and various taxes. Come to the Lounge between 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m., 12 May 2019, and enjoy a FREE breakfast just for you, Mom!
Movie Night	This month's feature is Fever Pitch, a romantic comedy starring Drew Barrymore and Jimmy Fallon as a successful business woman and a Boston Red Sox fanatic. Show time is 7:30 p.m. on Friday, 24 May—come early to get a good seat.

From the Faithful Navigator

Sir Knights, Brothers, and Worthy Families,

The May meeting is a Dining-In on 7 May 2019 at the Columbian Center, with the potluck beginning at 6:30 p.m., Rosary at 7:05, and a short business meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Congratulations are in order for the newest of our Sir Knights: Reverend Fr. Patrick Baffour-Akoto (St. Jerome's), Reverend Mr. Edwin Anleau (OLMC), Steve Chipman, David Mummert, Peter Gaines, Ihor Prybyla, Leonard Safford, and James Stewart. And a big thank you to all those other Sir Knights who took time out of their busy Saturday to come support our newest class. This Spring's one-day event had nearly the same number of participants as the Autumn 2018 Exemplification weekend-long event and many more Sir Knights wearing the new Regalia.

The last Patriotic Ceremony of this Fraternal Year is the USS Scorpion/Four Chaplain's Memorial Ceremony on 26 May 2019 at 2:30 in Huntington Park next to the War Memorial Museum. If our Worthy Faithful Captain Tee Fuller hasn't contacted you to help with this event yet, please seek him out. As it is with each of our big events, this is usually an all-hands-on-deck sort of thing. So, if you're in town on Memorial Day weekend sign up to help, call me, call Tee, email us; we need everybody!

We start the new Fraternal Year off with a bang by hosting the Independence Day Flag Raising Celebration at the Columbian Center at 8:00 on Thursday, the 4th of July.

Again, congratulations to our new Sir Knights and a hearty thank you for joining the All-Star Team!

Stay Patriotically Proud,

Rick Schirm
