Grand Knight's Report

Thanks to Tom Konen for his service to Council 10930 making our certificates. Due to his health, he will no longer be able to provide this service. Tom, know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. If Council 10930 can assist you in any way, please let me know.

Thanks to all Knights and family who helped Council 10930 with the Lenten Soup Night on Friday February 15. It was a good turn out of help, donations, and stations attendees. Thank you Pat and Pam for picking up the soup from Ben E. Keiths.

Phil Talbert, our Council

Chairman for Meals on Wheels, has informed me of the need for volunteers delivering food to customers. If you can help, please contact Phil at 817.232.8762 or phil.w.talbert@lmco.com for more information.

We will have a Highway Cleanup on Saturday March 2. We meet at Boat Club Road and Ten Mile Bridge Road. Start time is 8am. Older children may help as long as they are with an adult at all times. This is a good event to earn community service hours, so if you know a kid who needs hours, let them know.

Our Quarterly Awards Dinner is on Saturday March 23 after the 4pm Mass. The price per person will be $15. This increase is necessary due to the caterer price and to minimize the cost to our council. It has been made known to everyone who attends council meetings, our income is not what it used to be. Our council must take steps to ensure we can meet our financial obligations and support our charities. Council Director Gil Frausto and I will be having signups in the coming weekends.

A reminder from Jan Nowicki to submit scholarship paperwork on time for your eligible dependent/dependents.

Please review the Prayer lists for persons you have submitted. If a change is needed, please email Curt directly with the change request(curtlampkin@charter.net). A majority of the persons on the lists are not known by Curt, so he needs your input for these updates.

If you have not paid your council dues, please do so at your earliest convenience. Any Council Officer can take your payment and turn it over to our Financial Secretary.

If any member knows of a Knight that is not being informed of council events, please let me know. I will make sure this is corrected.

I will start ordering name badges for our council and I would request that you wear one. Send me an email with your name as you would want it to read(rangerfan64@charter.net). The cost is $8.
