THE ROSARY

A friend sent this to me and it was so beautiful I could not help but share it with all of you.

A SAINT INDIA CAN BE SO PROUD OF!!
... The Rosary - Simply Amazing! ...

Jim Castle was tired

when he boarded his plane in Cincinnati, Ohio, that night in 1981.
The 45-year-old management consultant had put on a week long series of business meetings and seminars, and now he sank gratefully into his seat ready for the flight home to Kansas City, Kansas.

As more passengers entered,
the place hummed with conversation,
mixed with the sound of bags being stowed.
Then, suddenly, people fell silent.
The quiet moved slowly up the aisle
like an invisible wake behind a boat.
Jim craned his head to see what was happening,
and his mouth dropped open.

Walking up the aisle were two nuns clad in simple white habits bordered in blue.
He recognized the familiar face of one at once,
the wrinkled skin, and the eyes warmly intent.

This was a face he'd seen in newscasts and on the cover of TIME.
The two nuns halted,
and Jim realized that his seat companion was going to be Mother Teresa!

As the last few passengers settled in,
Mother Teresa and her companion pulled out rosaries.
Each decade of the beads was a different color, Jim noticed.
"The decades represented various areas of the world,"
Mother Teresa told him later, and added, "I pray for the poor and dying on each continent."

The airplane taxied to the runway and the two women began to pray, their voices a low murmur.
Though Jim considered himself not a very religious Catholic who went to church mostly out of habit, inexplicably he found himself joining in.
By the time they murmured the final prayer,
the plane had reached cruising altitude..

Mother Teresa turned toward him.
For the first time in his life,
Jim understood what people meant
when they spoke of a person possessing an 'aura'.
As she gazed at him, a sense of peace filled him;
he could no more see it than he could see the wind but he felt it, just as surely as he felt a warm summer breeze.

"Young man," she inquired, "do you say the rosary often?"

"No, not really," he admitted
She took his hand, while her eyes probed his.
Then she smiled.
"Well, you will now."
And she dropped her rosary into his palm..

An hour later, Jim entered the Kansas City airport where he was met by his wife, Ruth.
"What in the world?" Ruth asked when she noticed the rosary in his hand.
They kissed and Jim described his encounter.

Driving home, he said. "I feel as if I met a true sister of God."

Nine months later,
Jim and Ruth visited Connie, a friend of theirs for several years.
Connie confessed that she'd been told she had ovarian cancer.
"The doctor says it's a tough case," said Connie,
"but I'm going to fight it. I won't give up."
Jim clasped her hand.

Then, after reaching into his pocket,
he gently twined Mother Teresa's rosary around her fingers.
He told her the story and said, "Keep it with you, Connie. It may help."
Although Connie wasn't Catholic,
her hand closed willingly around the small plastic beads.
"Thank you," she whispered. "I hope I can return it."

More than a year passed before Jim saw Connie again.
This time her face was glowing,
she hurried toward him and handed him the rosary.
"I carried it with me all year," she said.
"I've had surgery and have been on chemotherapy, too.
Last month, the doctors did second-look surgery,
and the tumour's gone. Completely!"
Her eyes met Jim's.
"I knew it was time to give the rosary back."

In the fall of 1987, Ruth's sister, Liz, fell into a deep depression after her divorce.
She asked Jim if she could borrow the rosary, and when he sent it, she hung it over her bedpost in a small velvet bag.

"At night I held on to it, just physically held on. I was so lonely and afraid," she says, "yet when I gripped that rosary, I felt as if I held a loving hand."

Gradually, Liz pulled her life together, and she mailed the rosary back.

"Someone else may need it," she said.

Then one night in 1988, a stranger telephoned Ruth.
She'd heard about the rosary from a neighbour and asked if she could borrow it to take to the hospital where her mother lay in a coma.
The family hoped the rosary might help their mother die peacefully.
A few days later, the woman returned the beads.
"The nurses told me a coma patient can still hear," she said,
"so I explained to my mother that I had Mother Teresa's rosary and that when I gave it to her, she could let go;
it would be all rosary in her hand."
"Right away, we saw her face relaxed.
The lines smoothed out until she looked so peaceful, so young.
A few minutes later, she was gone."

Fervently, the woman gripped Ruth's hands.
"Thank you."

Is there special power in those humble beads?

Or is the power of the human spirit simply renewed in each person who borrows the rosary?
Jim only knows that requests continue to come, often unexpectedly.
He always responds though, whenever he lends the rosary,
"When you're through needing it, send it back.
Someone else may need it."

Jim's own life has changed, too,
since his unexpected meeting on the airplane.
When he realized Mother Teresa carries everything she owns in a small bag,
he made an effort to simplify his own life.

"I try to remember what really counts - not money or titles or possessions,
but the way we love others," he says.

May God bless you abundantly..
May Mother Mary ask her Son Jesus to shower you with grace.

I know the power of the prayers of these simple beads and I wanted to share it with you.
Every sacrifice has a fruitful reward.
Every failure has a second chance.

We only have to be strong through God's grace and persevere in life's many tests!

May God bless you always!

A bus trip left St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's north parking lot at 7:00 am and returned at 8:00 pm, with 39 "Prayer Warriors" from 4 Parishes in the Diocese. The Catholic Daughters from SEAS were visible with their banner in the March. Dear Friends of Loreto House,

In November I sent out a prayer request for a young woman who was in fear for her life if she was sent back to her homeland. Her concern was that her parents would be ashamed of her and send her back to the country of origin where she would be stoned to death. Many of you responded with prayer and support but she went silent on us and we lost contact...until now.

She called me today and is still carrying the baby, however there are many obstacles for her at this time. She will come to see us on Friday.

It may become necessary for us to find a "Holy Respite" for her, which would be a family who is willing to consider sheltering her through the pregnancy. She is approximately 5 months along.

Please contact me if you may be able to help.

Message From The Church Director - Ed Leal

Brothers in Christ:

Jesus tells us in the Gospel this week (Mt 5:17-37) that he come not to abolish but to "fulfill" the Law of Moses and the teachings of the Prophets.

His message reveals the deeper meaning and purpose of the Ten Commandments and the moral Law of the Old Testament. Jesus offers us a challenging representation of the commandments, explaining the notions of murder, adultery, and swearing falsely to help us reflect on a deeper meaning of loving God.

God never asks more of us than we are capable. By his life, death and resurrection, Jesus has shown us that it is possible to keep his commandments.

Jesus, our "new Moses" is calling us to a radical way of living; a life of love and service to him.

May the peace of Christ be with you!

Youth Activities (Joe Jordan)

Here's the link to the photos I took last week during the National March for Life that you asked about.

<http://picasaweb.google.com/joejayjordan/NationalMarchForLifeWashingtonDC111?authkey=Gv1sRgCOLGuJTq7cGBIgE&feat=directlink>

Some quick facts about the trip...

We had 28 students in our group from the Diocese of Fort Worth, including 5 students from SEAS. There were also 13 adults, including two seminarians and one of the CFR's. Bishop Vann marched with us and also lead night prayer for our group in the crypt church of the National Basilica after the vigil Mass on Sunday night. He also con-celebrated the vigil Mass along with 5 cardinals including Cardinal DiNardo, 45 bishops, about 300 priests and hundreds of deacons and acolytes. The basilica was completely full as it is every year with about 10,000 people. There were about 400,000 at the March itself on Monday.

We visited the offices of both our Senators and spoke to their health staffers and also visited with a couple of our Congressmen to encourage them to continue to support the Pro-Life positions. It was a great experience for the youth as well as all of us who went. I'd love to see more of our Knights attend with us next year.

4th Degree - San Juan Diego Assembly 2857

Sir Knights,

Sir Knights

I want to say THANK YOU for the your fantastic participation these past couple of weeks. We stood Honor Guards at four different Pro-Life masses last week. One at St Michael's, Bedford, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Fort Worth and two at St Elizabeth Ann Seton, Keller. We had members who were a part of the Pro-Life Bus trip to Austin, they marched in the Pro-Life March to the Capital Building and attended the Pro-Life Rally at the Capital.

Our Faithful Comptroller sent out the first dues notice for 2011 during month of December He tells me that about half of our members have paid dues for 2011. He'll be sending out the second notice toward the end of the month to those who haven't paid your dues.

The assembly held the RE-OB ceremony January 9th in the KC Hall at Keller. We invited the squires of Squires Circle 2040 to participate with us. The Faithful Master had them repeat their oaths at the ceremony. The weather did hamper us some, the turnout was good. I want to say THANK YOU to those who were able to attend.

I've sent out the information announcing the LADIES APPRECIATION DINNER which will be held on Monday February 21st at Jerry's Italian Bistro, 7012 Boulevard 26, Richland Hills, TX. I've received reservations from a number of the Sir Knights and their Ladies, and what they have picked from the menu. The dinner is R.S.V.P. and we're requesting that we have all the RSVP's by February 11th. I'm to meet with the owner on the 16th of February to give him the list of how many are attending and their orders. The assembly will cover the cost for our Ladies and the cost for all Sir Knights is $20.00. The dress for all Sir Knights attending is Social (Tuxedo with Baldric). I was asked just this week why we're having the dinner on a Monday. The reason is because our assembly will have the restaurant to ourselves. Jerry's is closed on Mondays and has agreed to open for the assembly and we'll be able to have a private dinner. Those Sir Knights who have already sent me your dinner request, I'll be e-mailing you to verify your dinner request next week. I want to make sure all get what they've requested. If there is anyone who does not have the list of meal choices, please contact me and I will resend it to you.

We'll be holding our monthly meeting on February 9th at the KC Hall in Keller.

PLEASE MARK YOU CALENDARS THE MONTHLY MEETING FOR MARCH IS GOING TO BE HELD THURSDAY MARCH 10th AT 7:30 PM THE REASON WE'RE NOT HOLDING IT ON THE WEDNESDAY THE 9th OF MARCH IS BECAUSE THAT JUST HAPPENS TO BE ASH WEDNESDAY.

SK Tony Casper who is recovering from surgery
SK Al Obergon who is recovering from knee surgery
