GRAND KNIGHT'S REFLECTION

Brothers,

Our church director, Brother Ed Leal reminds me:

Do Something!!!

Now that our Lenten Journey has begun, let us not forget what this time of repentance is all about. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving (acts of charity). During this holy season, a question one should always ask is: What am I going to do? It's not only about giving up something, but rather "doing something"! Here are some ideas. Feed the hungry. Visit the sick. Attend daily Mass. Make a retreat. Spend time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Whatever you decide, God will bless you abundantly.

Read Matthew 25:31-46

Grand Knight

Nic Stevens

HIGHLIGHTS:

Message from Church Director

Ed Leal

Friday, February 19, 2016

Do Something

Now that our Lenten Journey has begun, let us not forget what this time of repentance is all about. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving (acts of charity). During this holy season, a question one should always ask is: What am I going to do? It's not only about giving up something, but rather "doing something"! Here are some ideas. Feed the hungry. Visit the sick. Attend daily Mass. Make a retreat. Spend time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Whatever you decide, God will bless you abundantly.

Read Matthew 25:31-46

Brothers---Lent started Wednesday, February 10. What are you planning to do? Instead of giving up something, what about doing something instead! Our District Deputy, Burnie Vaughan, has a wonderful suggestion. Each day during Lent donate one can of food for the hungry. That would be 40 cans for the next six weeks. Jesus said "feed My sheep". Think of the tremendous impact this can make in our community if each Knight would commit to this project. Can I count on your support? Take your cans to the church and watch what happens. Let's make a difference in someone's life! God will bless you abundantly and you will receive many graces too!
