Message from Church Director

Ed Leal

The Rich Young Man

"How hard is it for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mark 10:23). Jesus words are not only meant for the ears of the wealthy, but for all those who reserve a part of their heart for something other than God. We all have good intentions - like the rich man; we go to church on Sunday, pray daily, and treat others with respect. Like him, though, we also find it difficult to sacrifice our loved possessions. We're ready to give every part of ourselves to God, if it doesn't involve that! But God wants more. What are you withholding from God? Is there anything you are afraid that God would take away? Offer THAT up in prayer.

It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than one who is rich to enter the Kingdom of God. - Mark 10:25

FORTY CANS FOR LENT

Consider donating a can of food for each day of Lent

GOOD OF THE ORDER WORTHY LECTOR JACK ZWIT

Charity Is Always in Season

One of the best things about living up north is the appreciation of the change of seasons. However, some seasons seem to last longer than others. Frequently in February, the sun does not come out for weeks. Even the liturgical calendar this time of year feels a bit dreary. After celebrating the Lord's birth and baptism, we are met with two months of "ordinary time," which is immediately followed by 40 days of penance.

Cultivating the virtue of hope in Jesus Christ directs our minds to the future fulfillment of his promises, but it also gives purpose and direction to our lives today. It reminds us of our duty as Christians to practice charity, to witness to the Gospel and to grow in holiness here and now. Yes, there are days and seasons of our lives - and of the year - that may seem less meaningful or that we would rather not endure. But even during "ordinary time," we do not cease to celebrate the mysteries of Christ, and even our most mundane or difficult moments provide an opportunity to grow in faith and gratitude.

Many of the charitable works of the Knights of Columbus councils, such as FallFest, Coats for Kids, Christmas toy drives and Lenten Fish Fry's, are seasonal by their nature. At other times, Knights are called to respond to people's needs following tragic and unexpected natural disasters. Nonetheless, there is never a moment when we do not have an opportunity and a responsibility to witness God's love.

Brothers, Charity is offering our everyday lives to God. Preach the Word, be urgent in season and out of season. This we ask through Christ our Lord, Amen.

MESSAGE FROM OUR FIELD AGENT Terry Peffers

Plan for this Tax Day and into the Future

April 15 (tax day) is right around the corner. It's become popular this time of year to encourage the opening of an IRA or similar retirement annuity, or the depositing of additional funds into an existing account, as a tax-savings vehicle. Or perhaps someone has tried to convince you to open an account, touting the rate of interest that money in one of these accounts can earn. Let me join the chorus of folks encouraging you to open or add funds to an annuity, but for a different reason.

Certainly, contributing money to a Knights of Columbus annuity will allow you to save some money on your income tax return. And, our annuities do pay a very competitive interest rate, consistent with our primary goal of absolute safety of principal. Opening or adding to an annuity for these reasons, however, strikes me as taking a short-term view of a product that is designed to provide long-term security. How much security? How does retirement income that you cannot outlive - guaranteed - sound to you?

Here at the Knights of Columbus, you can open a retirement annuity for as little as $300. Consistent and disciplined savings placed into that annuity over time can - properly structured - guarantee you an income at retirement that you cannot outlive. That guarantee - along with the fact that no one has ever lost money left in a Knights of Columbus annuity (remember - absolute safety of principal) - really will provide you with peace of mind.

I am happy to meet with you - at your convenience and in your home - to explain in detail the benefits of opening a Knights of Columbus annuity, along with the benefits of our top-rated life insurance, disability income and long-term care insurance plans.
