A MESSAGE FROM TIM:

Brothers in Christ,

This year Craig Andersen and I are going to attend the North Texas Catholic Men's Conference in Plano on April 25th & 26th. Noel Santilla attended last year and said it was great. He said he was the only St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parishioner there. So, this year, Craig, Noel and I will be attending. I hope more men from SEAS can attend and then we can declare it some sort of pilgrimage.

The conference starts on Friday night at 6pm and ends at 9pm. Craig and I will be staying over night as it is a long drive home from Plano and a long drive back to be there at 7 am. If you can't make Friday, come Saturday as full day conference is on Saturday from 8am to 4pm.

If you can't go at all, pass this on to one of our brothers who would like to go.

Conference speakers:

Doug Barry

Al Cresta

Tim Staples

Father Bill Casey

- - The North Texas Catholic Men's Conference is an annual gathering of Catholic men which is coordinated by a lay ministry known as the Catholic Brothers for Christ (CBFC) with the following goals:
 - ◆ Motivate Catholic men to build the body of Christ by uniting as brothers, being a living example of the Gospel in all areas of their lives, and facilitating faith-building programs in our community.
 - ◆ Create ongoing partnerships with the Bishop and priests in the DFW Diocese.
 - ◆ Promote collaboration with other Catholic organizations with an emphasis on men's spiritual needs.

The conference will feature dynamic speakers who are inspiring Catholic men of faith whose topics are designed to promote the spiritual growth of men enabling them to become spiritual leaders in all facets of their daily lives. This conference provides the opportunity to encounter Our Lord Jesus by way of the Eucharistic Adoration, benediction, the rosary, reconciliation and celebration of the Mass.
