Character

God made us in his own image. This makes us unique among God's creatures because we reflect him, including his character traits. We have the potential to be loving, truthful, patient, forgiving, kind, and faithful. Being made in God's image does not mean being a god, but rather that we have many characteristics. God wants us to use them as he does, to honor and benefit others.

God created human beings in his own image. - Genesis 7:6

LITTLE THINGS

The world has gotten smaller. The things we do and say mean even more than the things we think about. The ripples that our actions make are no longer limited between two people. They may very well impact the world. So the little things are big now.

Life has a way to reacting to little nudges, small words and complete silence in a big way. Say, "Hello!" to someone passing by and you can change the direction of their day. Hold a door for another and you make them feel important, noticed, or even validated. You have no idea what they are going through at that very moment. The spoken word remains in the heart of the listener. The written word has a far greater impact.

Sending a card, a note of support, even an email is more tangible. The conversation you strike up with a stranger in a grocery store is part of the shared human experience of simply shopping for necessities. Instead of racing through the aisles, pause for a comment, a laugh, or a smile and a brief conversation, for we may be the only human interaction those other folks have that day. People touch lives for just a moment and move on. As well we should.

Brothers, you hold the power, the ability, the gift to make changes to the world by doing little things that make a big difference every day. Choose your words wisely, your actions with much consideration and remember your choices will be the legacy you leave behind....The world has gotten smaller and we have gotten busier. Life is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, in which smiles and kindness, and small obligations given habitually, are what preserve the heart and secure comfort. So spend some time this Lenten season doing the "little things" that really are big now.

SQUIRES CORNER

If you know a male youth age 10 to 18 - please encourage them to become Knights. The first best step is to have them join the Columbian Squires.

Please ask them to consider and see Brothers Dale Shipman, Miguel Chaidez, Ray Antio or Kevin Bast for questions or assistance.
