Forgiveness is not an Option

Why do we find it so hard to forgive others? We can think of at least one big reason: They don't deserve our forgiveness. In this year of mercy, let us remember this - we are the offenders and God is the offended. We have hurt God and don't deserve His forgiveness, yet He didn't wait until we asked Him to forgive us. Out of His deep love for us He forgave us while we were still in rebellion to Him. When we are reluctant to forgive others, we must remember what God wants us to.

Read Colossians 3:13

IT'S NOT TOO LATER:

Brothers---Lent started Wednesday, February 10. What are you planning to do? Instead of giving up something, what about doing something instead! Our District Deputy, Burnie Vaughan, has a wonderful suggestion. Each day during Lent donate one can of food for the hungry. That would be 40 cans for the next six weeks. Jesus said "feed My sheep". Think of the tremendous impact this can make in our community if each Knight would commit to this project. Can I count on your support? So instead of your one can a week make it seven cans. As usual take your cans to the containers at the back of church and watch what happens. It makes a difference in someone's life! Our Brothers who volunteer at the food pantry will attest to that. God will bless you abundantly and you will receive many graces too!
