NOTE:A quote from a homily by Bishop Vann at the annual Respect Life Mass: "Even as we hear the discouraging news about no change in the HHS regulations regarding the protection of conscience, we gather as a people of faith, strength, and conviction," the bishop said. "Never give in to the negative spirit of anger and discouragement, but, rather, walk by faith."

He encouraged his listeners to work, live, preach, and proclaim the Gospel of life in the public square, so religious freedom and conscience is never limited and "that Caesar may never sit where God sits."

Sunday's Reading

Brothers:

In Sunday's Gospel; John 12:20-33, Jesus prepares for his death. To help his disciples understand, he explains to them that first a seed must die before it can bear fruit.

The seed is the Word of God, Jesus Incarnate. Through his death and Resurrection the Father is glorified, and we are given the grace to follow after Christ and share in his eternal life.

If we want to experience the new life that Jesus offers, we must "die" to ourselves so that we may live forever with Jesus.

The Lord be with you.
