GRAND KNIGHT'S REFLECTIONS

Brothers,

The emblem of our Order dates from the second Supreme Council meeting on May 12, 1883. It was designed by James T. Mullen, who was then Supreme Knight. A shield with fasces (authority), anchor (Columbus), and dagger (knight on an errand of mercy) is mounted on a Formee Cross. Red, white and blue are our country's colors. Red is also hope, faith, and Christ's blood. White is purity, the Eucharist, and charity. Blue is for Our Lady, whose blue mantle she wrapped around our Lord. Proudly wear your KofC emblem and name badge whenever possible.

PLEASE..Help is needed this Burrito Sunday. We need rollers at 0630 . Sales after Mass (only takes 5-10 minutes) PLEASE.

May 11th - Wednesday

Council 759 is now scheduled to: Cook and serve a meal for 300 junior high and high school students in the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton religious program, also known as SETON YOUTH.

The meal will be our world famous SLOPPY JOE's! There will be quite a bit of prep to do and a bit of coordination. For example, we'll have to pre-cook some 50 pounds of hamburger meat, cut onions and such and then gather to cook and serve.

To participate, you must have your Keeping Children Safe certification up-to-date, and I must notify the front office who all is attending.

The deadline for you to notify me that you wish to participate in this event is April 22nd.

If you have a child in the religious ed program, this will be a great time to let everyone else know who their dad is. If you do not have kids in this program, it is a great time to let everyone know who the Knights of Columbus are!

This is our third year to cook this meal, and it is always a fun event.

Bring your apron!

Once again, Wednesday May 11th, cook and serve Seton Youth.

More specific details to come. Until then, contact me at my email or 817 908-0271.

Message from Church Director

Friday April 8

Knowing God

Spiritual growth is not a matter of trying harder. You can't force it and you can't make it happen. It comes as a result of developing habits of godliness that are pursued daily. Prayer and Bible reading are part of the training process. Consider these disciplines as an opportunity that allows you to come closer to God. As you build and develop these habits, you'll start to realize that knowing God is worth your effort. Knowing God takes a tremendous commitment, but the reward is great.

Jesus replied, "Your problem is that you don't know the Scriptures, and you don't know the power of God." - Mark 12:24

BEAUTIFUL FEET

AN OPPORTUNITY TO MINISTER TO THE LESS FORTUNATE

Brother Knights,

Our council has supported the Beautiful Feet homeless ministry through meal preparation service; not only our annual Christmas Eve dinner, but also monthly, to give their staff a break from the kitchen one day. To this end, a small group of us have met to prepare a meal - usually not more than a half-dozen of us - on a Monday evening near the end of each month. As with any other volunteer ministry, however, the dynamic can change over time: participants have more important commitments, find other ways to serve which have more appeal to them, or just plain "burn out."

Outside of the Christmas Eve dinner, this is a very low profile ministry. We prepare a meal at the Hall on a night when there are normally no other functions on the schedule; the food is delivered to Beautiful Feet by a volunteer the following day without fanfare, and served by BF staff for the Wednesday meal. No muss, no fuss, no headlines.

As you are all aware, the dynamic of our council has changed over the past few years; a number of members have left to join other councils or other parishes. Unfortunately, that number includes a substantial number of folks which, to date, had been the core of our BF ministry.

I'm not asking for much in the way of numbers; four or five solid volunteers would fit the bill just fine. Quantity does not concern me; quality is the priority. If you relish the chance to serve your brothers and sisters in a manner which will likely never be repaid in kind, in a fairly anonymous fashion, I would ask that you prayerfully consider lending your talents to this ministry. Strong culinary skills are not necessary; if you're willing to follow instructions, you're qualified. If you can wash dishes, you're qualified.

The tricky part is our schedule: we meet at the Hall the Monday prior to the last Wednesday of each month. In other words, we meet to cook a meal which is served at BF the last Wednesday of the month.

If you're interested, feel free to drop me a note at gmasher@netzero.net. Thank you for your consideration; I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours in Christ,
Gerry Asher
