Message from Church Director

Ed Leal

Good Friday

Today, we can find no greater proof of God's love for us than the sacrifice of His one and only Son on the cross. What the Father sent Jesus to do has now been accomplished. On this Good Friday, we see the victory of Jesus over His enemies - sin, Satan, and death. Reflect and ponder on how great these things are. It's Friday---but Sunday is coming!

"It is finished." - John 19:30

Good of the Order

Worthy Lecturer Jack Zwit

Holy Week

The Last Supper dwelled on the lives of the apostles and their personal relationship with Jesus.

When Jesus announced that one of them would betray Him, they questioned themselves and wondered...

Is it I Lord?...Could it be ME?...

With Holy Week fresh on our minds, our focus is on the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Let us recommit ourselves to live more like Him and raise the consciousness of all the people of the world to understand the love, compassion and will of God.

Risen Jesus, fill us with the joy of your Resurrection. Surround us with the radiant light of your glory.

Transform all the areas of our lives that are in need of Your healing touch.

Like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, help us to know you in the breaking of the bread, the Holy Eucharist.

With Thomas, let us touch you and cry, "My Lord and my God"

Risen Jesus, cover us with the radiance of your love. Let us be your messengers of peace, joy, and love to all we meet.

Brothers in Christ, let us put on the full armor of God, because we have work to do! Amen.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES THURSDAY APRIL 20th - SUNDAY 23rd

Most of you have received my previous "WARNING" note that the Divine Mercy Sunday Youth Retreat (4/21 - 4/23) is going strong and once again we have the opportunity to teach by serving the youth.

We used to call it Youth 2000, this year we are re-branding as The Source And Summit.

Our mission remains, to bring youth to the feet of Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Source and Summit of all our gifts.

Rosie and Charlie Levitt have committed to co-chair again with Alana and I.

Thank you to those who have responded and offered to help. Let me know if you have any friends who would like to help.

I am very excited about the amount of religious orders and priests that we will have attending this year; over 25 from 10 different orders. They will be doing all of the teaching.

The Bishop has asked the diocesan priests to make an extra effort to come and hear confessions.

The burning bush will be aflame with Jesus as the summit.

Please respond even if you cannot help so I know these emails are getting out. Let me know when and how you would like to a help. We have to ensure we have coverage. Here is the approximate schedule:

Thursday:

3:00 pm S&S team will be setting up the arena.

5:30 pm Team mass in the Nolan Chapel

6:00 PM Team dinner (Wraps from Chic Fil A)

Friday:

3:00 pm Those with trucks will meet at Sams

3:00 pm We will start organizing the cafeteria

Slicing and bagging of oranges, organizing snacks and food.

Setting up Hospitality room.

Setting up the teacher lounge to feed the entire team. Ginger Falcon's famous tuna salad recipe will be available for "as you can" dinner

Opening Mass with the Bishop

Listen to the opening talks.

Saturday:

We will start at 8:00 AM preparing for the onslaught of smiling but half sleeping youth. Detail schedule of the day later. As in the past it will be a mix of snacks and meals.

Sunday is family day Final talks and Mass with the Bishop.

The work of the food team is about over and you can attend the final talks. We will be saying goodbye and distributing left overs at the exit.

Thank you for your patience and support.

Let me know.
