HIGHLIGHTS:

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Lord, give me the wisdom, strength, and insight

I need to be a good father.

Though the gift of Your Spirit, help me model You in all things.

And be patient with me when I come up short.

Lord, especially help me to be forgiving toward my family.

May my forgiveness know no bounds, just as Your forgiveness washes away my sins.

Amen.

PROGRESS

COURT UPHOLDS KEY PARTS OF TEXAS' ANTI-ABORTION LAW
Austin American Statesman - June 9, 2015 A federal appeals court upheld key parts of Texas's strict anti-abortion law on Tuesday, a decision that could leave as few as seven abortion clinics in the nation's second largest state.

The decision by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals comes in a lawsuit challenging some of the toughest abortion restrictions in the country, including requirements that all abortion-providing health clinics employ hospital-level operating standards.

The Perfect Prayer

The Our Father is the perfect prayer for leading us into a trusting and merciful relationship with God. Jesus teaches us to speak to our Father in prayer, and to do so with humble hearts, always trusting in God's love and mercy. When we prayerfully meditate on Jesus' words, we offer praise, we confess our sinfulness, we thank God for all that is provided for us, and we place our needs in God's hands. We also ask God to guide us away from all things that might lead us to sin, and most of all, to keep us safe from the Evil One. In this wonderful prayer, Jesus gives us everything we need to sustain our lives of faith.

Scripture verse - Matthew 6:9

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name
