Simple Obedience

Mary had seen it all. She had watched Jesus grow up. Mary knew Jesus' potential as only a mother can, and she could sense that He was about to do something special. So she said to the servants at the wedding at Cana, "Do whatever He tells you." In Mary's instructions we find an important lesson to learn. God has planned a life journey for you filled with surprises and opportunities for growth. He wants to provide for you beyond your abilities and he wants you to maximize your potential. He wants to put Himself on display in your life over and over again. The best way to live is to follow Mary's instructions: "Do whatever He tell you!"

Read John 2:1-12

YOUNG ADULTS NEED OUR SUPPORT TO SERVE
GOD AS MISSIONARIES

There are many ways to contribute to the Culture of Life locally, and one of those ways is to support young people who are called to serve God as a missionary. Please consider supporting the following young adults from our parish who are serving as missionaries on high school and college campuses in the upcoming school year:

FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students)

Nate Risteen (son of Brother Reed and Abby Risteen) He begins his 2nd year with FOCUS at the University of Louisiana Lafayette. Teresa and I met with Nate for a couple hours this week to hear about his mission and his calling. We are very impressed by Nate and his fervor to spread the gospel, his activities as an international missionary and campus missionary, as well as his humility in holding off his career in engineering while he discerns God's call. Please consider supporting his mission: <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/nathan-risteen>

NET Ministries (National Evangelization Team)

Erin Gueco

Brendan Walsh

Both Erin (HS grad 2015) and Brendan (HS grad 2014) high school graduates. They were regulars at Seton Youth activities through high school. They have served as small group leaders in Seton Youth as graduating high school. Both have made multiple trips to the DC Pro-Life March. They will both travel to Minnesota for training and then randomly assigned to a mission anywhere in the United States. Each missionary is responsible to raise at least $5,000 for their mission. Please consider donating to their mission: <https://mission.netusa.org/giving/ministry-partnership-development>

Brendan and Erin follow previous missionaries for NET, Robert Ybarra Jr. (2014/2015), Cameron Walton (2015/2016) and Cassidy Phillips, who is on her 2nd year with NET. You might know Cassidy's mother, Sandra. She and her daughters moved to New Orleans two year ago. She is still connected to our parish family.
