To: My Brother Knights

From: Deacon Nelson Petzold

RE: The Hearts & Souls of Council 759

Brother Knights,

I apologize for not doing more for the spirituality and emotional wellbeing of Council 759 and your individual growth in the Lord.

Therefore I am asking you to take a moment or two and give me some guidance as to your expectations of the Chaplain and what can I offer to help you grow in your Faith, understanding of the Catholic Faith and to try and help all of us be better Knights of Christ.

This Council goes beyond the call in service to the Parish and Community at large. The devotion to the sanctity of life, marriage and the Sacraments is without question. Still, we can at times get so busy with "busy" things we forget to nourish our own souls and work with equal fervor to strengthen our faith and "Right" relationship with the Lord.

As you know we have Solemn Vespers and Benediction every Tuesday beginning at 6:30 PM. This follows a day of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Other than the Mass, what greater thing can we do, then to kneel in the Presence of our God?

So please take a moment, give me some thoughts and perhaps some ideas about a class, or instruction if you will, perhaps on Tuesday nights after Benediction.

I have some ideas, but do not want to influence your thoughts. List three (3) ideas and then I will meet with our Pastor to formulate a plan.

I remain always, your unworthy servant in Christ Jesus.
