HIGHLIGHTS:

Many of you have been waiting for word about details for the funeral for SK Richard Mutschler. A Memorial Mass will be held at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton on Monday morning, July 23rd at 11:00 A.M. for our brother Richard.

Please continue to pray for the repose of the soul of our brother knight, as well as his wife Marie.

By now most of you have received a letter from Terry Bachman, of the KC 759 Hall Committee, with tickets to raise funds for the retrofit of the knights storage containers. We need to add an exterior similar to the existing knights building to comply with a new City of Keller ordinance. This retrofit is going to cost the knights many thousands of dollars to comply with this ordinance. This item was not in the budget. The retrofit has an impact not only the Knights of Columbus, but on SEAS as well since our containers sit on church property. It is a problem that needs to be addressed immediately. So to make a long story short. We need to really push ticket sales as quickly as possible to get funds to start the work. We need to push hall rentals to generate hall revenue and lastly if you feel you would like to make a donation to this project we would certainly appreciate your generosity. Thanks for your support.

Sunday's Reading

Brothers:

Mark 6:30-34 www.usccb.org/bible/readings

The Gospel tells us about the apostles, who are returning from their missions. Jesus tells them go rest and pray. We must also recognize that it is important for us to find time to pray.

To follow Jesus is to be with him, to know him well so that we come to understand how he thinks and how he feels about things. It does not mean that we stop being ourselves, but that we allow our life to be formed by him.

Following Christ is always difficult, but it always brings us everlasting life.

Let us walk with our Shepherd and know his love for us!

The Lord be with you.

Boy Scout Troop 32

2012 Footsteps of the Saints Pilgrimage

During March 2012, Bishop Vann appointed John Ryan (KC 759) Diocesan Pilgrimage Director for the 2012 Footsteps of the Saints Pilgrimage (sponsored by St Francis Church and KC 7099 Chaplain Fr Anh) that departs August 3 and returns on August 8th, 2012. As Director, John will lead 30 Boy Scouts and 15 Scout Adults on a pilgrimage to New Mexico exploring the lives of the saints as a National Catholic Committee on Scouting program. John will be accompanied by KC 759 member, Dale Shipman, who will be managing the "3 Amigos" food operation for the entire group. Presently, there are 5 adults and 6 Scouts from Troop 32 including Michael Shipman and Nolan Ryan (sons of KC 759 members). A few of these Scouts/Scouters appeared in a story carried by the Texas Knight on their website several months ago. Scouts and Scouters from Arlington to Muenster, Wichita Falls to Keller and from 6 different Troops around the diocese will participate in this groundbreaking sojourn.

Our Footsteps Pilgrimage will include study regarding Venerated Fr McGivney as one of the subjects of our Scouts curriculum. St Juan Diego, Blessed Pope John Paul II, Blessed Fr Serra, and Blessed Katera Tekakwitha will round out the topics of our program.

The 2012 Footsteps Pilgrimage is sponsored by St Francis Church and will also be attended by Fr Anh Tran as well as Diocese of Ft Worth Seminarian Thomas Jones. Fr Anh is Pastor of St Francis Church, KC 7099 Chaplain and Region Chaplain for the National Catholic Committee.

KC 759 members Dale Shipman, John Ryan and their sons have participated in fund raising activities that have raised almost $6,000 for Scout Scholarships and the expense of a commercial bus. These scholarships have allowed Scouts and Scouters attend our Pilgrimage who may not have been able to because the current economic problems... layoffs, underemployment, etc.

The Pilgrimage includes a visit to San Miguel Mission (oldest church in America), Loretto's Chapel (the miraculous staircase), and the Church at Chimayo. In keeping with the Indian culture involved in the lives of Blessed Katera, St Juan Diego and Fr Serra's work along the west coast, our Pilgrimage will visit the Indian cliff dwellings at Bandolier National Monument.

Finally, our Boy Scouts will visit Philmont Scout Ranch where the National Catholic Committee Conference will Occur and an opportunity for our Scouting pilgrims to conduct a Living Rosary in the mountains of New Mexico. Footsteps of the Saints is a religious adventure meant to portray inspiring role models for our Scouts to aspire to in their own faith journey.

We ask the Knights of Council 759 to please pray for the success for our Pilgrimage. For more information, please contact John Ryan at
