Message from Church Director

Ed Leal

Friday, July 22, 2016

A Picture of Servanthood

At the Last Supper Jesus shocked the apostles when He chose to wash their feet. After all, their Master should not be doing servants work. If anything, the disciples should have been washing His feet! But Jesus knew his disciples were going to be servants and they needed an unforgettable picture of the type of servanthood they were to live out. Jesus' example of service is equally important for us too. It not only shows us that Jesus is the one who washes us completely, but it shows us that no matter how important we think we are, we should always strive to serve others.

Read John 13:8

YOUNG ADULTS NEED OUR SUPPORT TO SERVE GOD AS MISSIONARIES

There are many ways to contribute to the Culture of Life locally, and one of those ways is to support young people who are called to serve God as a missionary. Please consider supporting the following young adults from our parish who are serving as missionaries on high school and college campuses in the upcoming school year:

FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students)

Nate Risteen (son of Brother Reed and Abby Risteen) He begins his 2nd year with FOCUS at the University of Louisiana Lafayette. Teresa and I met with Nate for a couple hours this week to hear about his mission and his calling. We are very impressed by Nate and his fervor to spread the gospel, his activities as an international missionary and campus missionary, as well as his humility in holding off his career in engineering while he discerns God's call. Please consider supporting his mission: <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/nathan-risteen>

NET Ministries (National Evangelization Team)

Erin Gueco

Brendan Walsh

Both Erin (HS grad 2015) and Brendan (HS grad 2014) high school graduates. They were regulars at Seton Youth activities through high school. They have served as small group leaders in Seton Youth as graduating high school. Both have made multiple trips to the DC Pro-Life March. They will both travel to Minnesota for training and then randomly assigned to a mission anywhere in the United States. Each missionary is responsible to raise at least $5,000 for their mission. Please consider donating to their mission: <https://mission.netusa.org/giving/ministry-partnership-development>

Brendan and Erin follow previous missionaries for NET, Robert Ybarra Jr. (2014/2015), Cameron Walton (2015/2016) and Cassidy Phillips, who is on her 2nd year with NET. You might know Cassidy's mother, Sandra. She and her daughters moved to New Orleans two year ago. She is still connected to our parish family.
