A New Kind of Fishing

Peter and Andrew knew fishing. They had been fishermen all their lives. But then Jesus came along and redefined them to be "fishers of men". If Peter and Andrew's new fishing venture was going to succeed, it would only be because they learned from the Master and because of the power God had instilled in them. God wants the very best you have to give, but only if you will let Him transform it and make it useful for the work He calls you to do. What is the best you have to offer Jesus?

YOUNG ADULTS NEED OUR SUPPORT TO SERVE GOD AS MISSIONARIES

There are many ways to contribute to the Culture of Life locally, and one of those ways is to support young people who are called to serve God as a missionary. Please consider supporting the following young adults from our parish who are serving as missionaries on high school and college campuses in the upcoming school year:

FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students)

Nate Risteen (son of Brother Reed and Abby Risteen) He begins his 2nd year with FOCUS at the University of Louisiana Lafayette. Teresa and I met with Nate for a couple hours this week to hear about his mission and his calling. We are very impressed by Nate and his fervor to spread the gospel, his activities as an international missionary and campus missionary, as well as his humility in holding off his career in engineering while he discerns God's call. Please consider supporting his mission: <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/nathan-risteen>

NET Ministries (National Evangelization Team)

Erin Gueco

Brendan Walsh

Both Erin (HS grad 2015) and Brendan (HS grad 2014) high school graduates. They were regulars at Seton Youth activities through high school. They have served as small group leaders in Seton Youth as graduating high school. Both have made multiple trips to the DC Pro-Life March. They will both travel to Minnesota for training and then randomly assigned to a mission anywhere in the United States. Each missionary is responsible to raise at least $5,000 for their mission. Please consider donating to their mission: <https://mission.netusa.org/giving/ministry-partnership-development>

Brendan and Erin follow previous missionaries for NET, Robert Ybarra Jr. (2014/2015), Cameron Walton (2015/2016) and Cassidy Phillips, who is on her 2nd year with NET. You might know Cassidy's mother, Sandra. She and her daughters moved to New Orleans two year ago. She is still connected to our parish family.
