At Thursday's Business Meeting Grand Knight Burnie Vaughn announced the following awards.

Knight of the Month.... Edward Yrisarri, Jr. for his prison ministry work for the last 11 years. He has been a Knight of Columbus for 63 years.

Family of the Month ... Michael A.& Linda Corso and family for all they do for the Knights, Squires, Parish and school.

Friday September 7th we need help building out the balance of trusses needed for the roof. Once this is completed we will start the actual installation of the trusses on the container roof. We plan to start work at 8 AM each morning and stop by 12 noon to avoid heat. If you have the time to donate please help us. Tom Howard, Dave Nicholas and others are leading the effort to complete this project as soon as possible.

A Special Thanks to all the good folks who came out last Saturday. (And there was a bunch of folks.) With all the help we had we were able to accomplish building trusses for the roof, built the foundation frames, completed electrical work, move sprinkler heads from the foundation footings and completed additional prep work for the project. Again thanks!!!!

Also special thanks to the folks who smoked all the goodies for Labor Day weekend.

HELP NEEDED AFTER MASSES

THIS IS A CRITICAL ACTIVITY FOR THE HEALTH OF THE COUNCIL

It is vital that we get as many tickets sold as possible so we can get started on the project to bring our storage buildings up to city code, but we also want to promote the hall to any potential renters. and of course, we always want to take the opportunity to invite other men to join the knights. Flyers about hall rentals and form 100's will be provided for you to give to any interested parishioners.

If you can support this effort by helping to sell after masses, contact me (Terry Bachman) at, tm1979@sbcglobal.net.

P.S. Donations are also welcome to help us offset this expense. (Editor)

A NOTE FROM THE BISHOP

Bishop Vann's Invitation to the Knights of Columbus

Brother Knights:

Since its inception, our diocese has been blessed to have a number of councils involved in the Annual Pro-Life Banquet. Please know how sincerely grateful I am to all of you for your past support. I am writing to you this year to ask those of you who have supported us in the past to please do so again and to those who have not been involved to make this the year you join us.

The reason for my request is this. As we have all seen in recent months, never has the sanctity and dignity of human life been so trivialized. Those who would have us think and act differently have challenged our core beliefs, beliefs that define us as Catholics. I am proud to say that we have not stood idly by. Along with a number of dioceses, the Diocese of Fort Worth has taken a leading role in defending our beliefs. This will be a long struggle, but an important one.

In the past, when our moral beliefs have come under attack, the faithful have rallied together to show their support and solidarity. If we are to prevail again, we must do the same. This year's Annual Pro-Life Banquet provides a forum for us, as Catholics, to come together to challenge this affront to human life and send a powerful message to all that we will defend our moral beliefs. My brothers, your attendance is crucial and your support is vital.

It is my fervent prayer that your council will be represented at this year's event. For further information or to answer any questions you may have, please free to contact Michael Messano, Director of Advancement at mmessano@fwdioc.org or by phone at 817-560-2452 ext. 174.

In closing, I wish to thank our District leaders for their help and support of our efforts. I pray for God's continued blessings on your council as well as your loved ones.

Vivat Jesus

Most Rev. Kevin W. Vann, JCD, DD
Bishop of the Diocese of Fort Worth

CHURCH DIRECTOR - ED LEAL

Sunday's Reading

Brothers:

Mark 7:31-37 www.usccb.org/bible/readings

In Sunday's Gospel we see reaction of the people to Jesus and his miracles. He fulfills the prophets - the deaf hear and the mute speak. His wonderful acts are signs of what he does for all of us.

Jesus never turned anyone away who approached him with sincerity and trust. And whatever Jesus did, he did well. He demonstrated the goodness of God in all his actions. Nothing is impossible for the Son of Man!!

How do expect the Lord to treat you when you ask for his help?

The Lord be with you.
