Result: Our parishioners requested and took 1489 baby bottles, we ran out of bottles at the Sunday 5:00PM. Thank you Lord!!!

Along the same line our Brother Tim Johnson and his wife Teresa are working very hard right now pulling together and event for the parish called GOSPEL OF LIFE CELEBRATION on the morning of October 4th. We have Brother Knights who have

GOSPEL OF LIFE CELEBRATION

LIFE CHAIN MASS and PANCAKE BREAKFAST AND MORE

OCTOBER 4th

In 1972 the United States Council of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) declared October as "RESPECT LIFE MONTH".

As the Culture of Life director, I with the assistance of Msgt Hart and Deacon Petzold have secured an event to bring our parish, council, and whoever else wants to come, to break bread, celebrate mass and pray together for an end to abortion. Though the Culture of Life and Respect Life encompasses many facets and issues regarding the dignity of the human person, we will focus on the most vulnerable individuals in our human family, our are brothers and sisters who are living and growing in their mother's womb. The devaluation of life from conception to birth, leads to devaluation of life at all stages. Therefore, as a People of Life, we must stand tall and affirm the value of every human person in our homes, schools, churches, work places and communities. So, let's come together on the morning of October 4th and make that affirmation for Life.

Come join the parish of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and Knights of Columbus Council 759 for breakfast and prayer as we prepare for the LIFE CHAIN occurring on October 5th 2:00 to 3:30 pm.

Event Line Up

6:30 - 8 am Pancake Breakfast 6:30 to 8am (Parish Hall)

9 am - Mass presided by Msgr Hart at 9:00 (Church)

10 - 1030 am Prayer Vigil and Balloon rosary launch (Prayer Garden and Church Parking Lot)

10:30 to Noon - Brunch (Parish Hall)

Give a donation to eat. Proceeds will benefit Pro-Life activities of both the K of C Council 759 and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church.
