Grand Knight's Weekly Reflections Brothers,

Service. Every time I see you, my brothers, I see you serving each other and the SEAS community. Our Council catered an event today at SABRE and our customers were very appreciative. Kneelers were repaired today at church and parishioners will be delighted. The four high chairs in the Sanctuary all have the KofC crest on them as we serve the Lord. I just wanted to thank you for serving! Someone posted of Facebook that it's 'brother week'. Happy week, Brothers!

"But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded." 2 Chronicles 15:7

What a Sunday!!!!!!

This past weekend was one for the books. Burrito Sunday, SEAS Respect Life Baby Bottle Drive, Adult Religious Education Awareness and last but not least the Troops of Saint George with their really cool uniforms, tents and information booth with flavored ices. Any visitors here for Mass would probably have marveled, what a busy, involved upbeat parish and they would be right.

I mention this to you because as I looked out at all the organizations here on Sunday I realized our Brother Knights are involved in all these organizations. "Service" as our Grand Knight Nic stated in his reflections this week. We are a group of Brothers who are always helping (serving); our families, each other, other organizations, the community and most importantly our Church, our clergy and the parish community. Your Brothers are involved. The influence we as Knights have is far reaching and penetrating and we will never know the impact our actions. The thing that always amazes me is how little we know about what our Brothers do. The Brother sitting next to you at a meeting, may be the President of the Board of a Battered Women's shelter or working in a prison ministry or visits the sick and home bound bringing them communion. The list goes on but you get my grist. WE SERVE. WE ARE THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS. How could you not be proud to be a Knight?

THANK YOU BROTHERS FOR YOUR SERVICE TO BURRITOS AND BABY BOTTLES AND ANY OTHER ACTIVITY YOU WERE INVOLVED IN THIS WEEK.

Finding Contentment

Where can you find contentment? Is it a result of wealth, or power, or beauty, or fame? Hardly. Genuine contentment is a gift from God to those who trust in Him and follow His Commandments. Our modern world seems preoccupied with the search for happiness. We are bombarded with messages telling us that happiness depends on material possessions. These messages are false. If we don't find contentment with God, we will never find it anywhere else. But, if we seek Him, we will be blessed with an inner peace that is beyond human understanding. God's timing is perfect - so be patient and trust God!

Scripture verse - Philippians 4:11

I've learned by now to be quite content whatever my circumstances.

PLEASE NOTE: LOCATION CHANGE

The Gospel of Matthew Class Sunday September 13th will be held in Pius 12 Building 7PM - 9PM.
