See the section below called "A Message from the Pro Life Director" for details and Tim's e-mail to volunteer. This is a spectacular event for the parish.

GOSPEL OF LIFE CELEBRATION

LIFE CHAIN MASS and PANCAKE BREAKFAST AND MORE
OCTOBER 4th

In 1972 the United States Council of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) declared October as "RESPECT LIFE MONTH".

As the Culture of Life director, I with the assistance of Msgr Hart and Deacon Petzold have secured an event to bring our parish, council, and whoever else wants to come, to break bread, celebrate mass and pray together for an end to abortion. Though the Culture of Life and Respect Life encompasses many facets and issues regarding the dignity of the human person, we will focus on the most vulnerable individuals in our human family, our are brothers and sisters who are living and growing in their mother's womb. The devaluation of life from conception to birth, leads to devaluation of life at all stages. Therefore, as a People of Life, we must stand tall and affirm the value of every human person in our homes, schools, churches, work places and communities. So, let's come together on the morning of October 4th and make that affirmation for Life.

Come join the parish of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and Knights of Columbus Council 759 for breakfast and prayer as we prepare for the LIFE CHAIN occurring on October 5th 2:00 to 3:30 pm.

Event Line Up

6:30 - 8 am Pancake Breakfast 6:30 to 8am (Parish Hall)

9 am - Mass presided by Msgr Hart at 9:00 (Church)

LIFE CHAIN: Oct 5, 2:00PM - 3:30PM
North Tarrant and 377. Come stand with us and peacefully pray for the end of abortion.
