Sharing Your Strength

God is not the only One with the power to bless. You, too, can build up others by showing them special favor, which is what a blessing truly is. One way is through the gift of encouragement. The more you take the opportunity to cheer on and support those around you, the more you'll experience the joy that love can bring. You never know when a word of encouragement to a friend or even a stranger will cause a ripple effect that will be felt for eternity. God can put your simple gift of encouragement into a tremendous blessing.

I'm eager to encouragement you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged by yours. In this way each of us will be a blessing to the other. - Romans 1:12

Squire's Corner

If you have a male youth age 10 to 18 - please encourage them to become Knights. The first best step is to have them join the Columbian Squires.

Please ask them to consider and see Brothers Dale Shipman, Miguel Chaidez, Ray Antio or Kevin Bast for questions or assistance.

REMEMBER TO TURN YOUR CLOCKS BACK ONE HOUR ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

Next Business Meetings November 6 - 3:00 PM at the Knight's Hall. NOTE: For the next meeting - membership dues and the start of the new fraternal year are here. Please plan to submit. If you have financial difficulties please let any of the counselors know.

The mid-year Texas Squire's event is coming up! January 13-15 in San Antonio. All Circle 2040 Squires are invited. This is a fun and exciting conference that offers great fellowship and an opportunity to understand how a large organization is run (State By-Laws are voted on) and to have fun with fellow Squires from your own and other circles. Squires - talk to your fellow brothers to learn more about the event. Parents - if you want to understand more about the conferences, please reach out to a counselor.

This year's retreat master is Fr. John Payne, S.J.

Fr. John R. Payne, S.J., grew up in Galveston and entered the Jesuits immediately after graduating from Kirwin High School. In the long course of Jesuit training he studied at Grand Coteau, Louisiana and Spring Hill College in Mobile, Alabama before teaching at Strake Jesuit and then moving to Toronto, Canada for theology. After ordination he pursued graduate work in American Civilization at The University of Texas in Austin. While there he wrote a dissertation on a saintly and heroic Jesuit, Father Louis J. Twomey, S.J., whose dedication to Jesus and others made him a powerful force for social change. With that phase of study completed he accepted an assignment to help in the early years of forming the Spirituality Center at Grand Coteau and taught novices there.

He spent many years at both Loyola University in New Orleans and Spring Hill College and four years at Jesuit of Dallas serving to foster the distinctive Jesuit approach to education while serving on the faculty and engaging in ministry. During the past 13 years he served in Austin, Texas to help support the Catholic identity of one secondary school while helping with the foundation of another based on the Christo Rey model.

He presently is on the board of Cristo Rey Jesuit Preparatory in Houston. Bishop Gregory Aymond, then Bishop of Austin, appointed him to the position of "Minister to Priests" in 2005 with the approval of the Jesuit Provincial and he provided spiritual guidance to brother priests of the Diocese of Austin until leaving to accept assignment to Montserrat in the spring of 2012.
