HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!!!!!

Saturday Morning KC Hall - Help Needed

LAST HALL WORKDAY OF THE YEAR

This Saturday is our monthly work day. Start at 8:00am, we need help to clear the gutters of leaves, move some dirt around to fill in holes and level the ground from where we poured concrete this week and help with the Turkey Cook. Please come out and help. Your efforts help us to keep our building looking nice and allow us to rent out to help pay for costs.

IT'S TIME TO GET IN THE SPIRIT OF THE SEASON.

With the Holidays come the usual hurry about for the perfect gift to your loved ones. Don't forget the ones who are not loved by anyone but God and their mothers, the homeless. As the Council has done on a monthly basis in years past, we will be doing two large meals in Nov and Dec. Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve Dinner. When you go shopping at Kroger, Tom Thumb, Albertson's or any other food outlet over the next couple of weeks keep in mind that there is a need for those turkeys that they sell for reduced prices when you buy a certain amount. A 15lb turkey will cost less than $5.00 (Less than 2 cups of coffee at Starbuck's). Buy a turkey or two and bring them to the Hall. We will cook and serve them to those who really need our assistance. Also, good serviceable coats and clothing are needed. These items will be collected and distributed.

Message From The Church Director - Ed Leal

Brother Knights in Christ:

When we read Sunday's Gospel from Luke (23:35-43), we see that Jesus is called the King of the Jews. His style of kingship is not what anyone is expecting. The first thing that a king must have if he is to continue as king is some kind of power. Jesus actually chooses to be helpless and allow himself to be ridiculed and despised. This surely does not sound like a king with any power.

The teaching in the Gospels is absolutely clear. If you want to be first, then be last. If you want to have power, become the servant of others. The Solemnity of Christ the King is not about power or being first, it's about doing the will of the Father.

Today's challenge is not for Christians to take on power and prestige. Today, it's about believing and being strong in our faith and being willing to suffer for what we believe.

As we approach Advent next week, please remember to pray the Rosary daily, and attend Mass frequently. If you are unable to attend Mass, EWTN carries it every morning on the radio at 7:00 am. You can find it at 910 AM.

Peace be with you!
