Grand Knight’s Message

Brothers, Families, and Friends of Council 367,

The Admissions Degree in the Knights of Columbus is like a Sacrament in the Church. Although technically not the same and certainly not sanctioned as such, a candidate's completion of the Admissions Degree should be thought of as having as much import on his spiritual and religious development as does the conferring of one of the Sacraments in the Catholic Church itself. I believe it's critically important to think of it that way. Doing so puts the proper perspective on everything we stand for and should be doing as Knights.

One of the characteristics of a sacrament that is celebrated in the Catholic Church is that it is a visible rite. That means that the sacrament is conducted in public in front of the parishioners. Another characteristic is that a sacrament is conferred by the priest who has been divinely vested with the authority to do so. Only he can confer the sacrament upon the uninitiated.

Knight of the Month

The Knight of the Month is a Brother that exemplifies the passion for a program that we all need to have. He has single handedly directed the Council's life programs this fraternal year. He spearheaded the 40 Days for Life Prayer Vigil initiative and led us on our first ever abortion clinic protest. His inspirational leadership was key to amassing the most Knights for a prayer vigil that the Council has ever had. He recently represented the Council at a regional right to life conference. He is also leading the planning effort for the national Match for Life.

As a parish Round Table Coordinator, he led a highly successful religious education breakfast event that yielded several prospects for the Council. Finally, this Knight has stepped up to accept a leadership position in the Fourth Degree. He is an outstanding example of a Knight. Congratulations to Peter Laurin on his selection as the October Knight of the Month.

Vivat Jesus,
Dan

Family of the Month

Our Family of the Month is from Sacred Heart Church. He was instrumental in forming "That Man Is You" men's group five years ago. Each Saturday morning about 30 men meet for breakfast, to watch a video presentation, and then discuss ways to be better men of God. He has steadfastly shepherded the men as they learn ways to be better leaders, husbands, and fathers for their families. He has also been a youth leader and chaperone for the past two National Catholic Youth Conferences (NCYC). He is a confirmation sponsor for parish youth and has been a member of the 125th Anniversary Committee that organized events for the parish's celebrations this past year.

His wife will be a chaperone for the 2019 NCYC. She also prepares the weekly sides for the TV in the commons. Their daughter has attended NCYC and is a youth council leader. Their son has also attended sessions for confirmation and assists with the soup kitchen at the parish. This family serves as a great model of servant leadership and involvement for our parish. Congratulations to Kevin, Kelly, Ashby & Seth Larkin as the October Family of the Month!

Vivat Jesus,

Grand Knight's Message, from Page 1

Finally, the completion of a sacrament typically involves some sort of verbal or physical affirmation from the conferee. All of those factors make a sacrament a mystical channel of divine grace. The receiver of the sacrament is forever changed at the completion of the ceremony. A very similar thing takes place in the Knights of Columbus during an Admissions Degree. Think about our ceremonies.

Every sacrament involves visible and invisible realities. The invisible part of it is God's gift to redeem us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ via the Holy Spirit. It is because of this divine grace that we get directly from God that we derive the commission that we have spoken about previously. Because of that commission, we are empowered and even required to act on behalf of God. It is a powerful concept. But without the visible part, it is meaningless.

The visible part of the sacrament is all about the conferee. More correctly, it is about action as manifested in our lives on a daily basis. Our response to the invisible gift of God's grace through the conferring of the sacrament is how we are measured individually as Knights and as a group in the Council. Because God is sharing his holiness with us through the sacrament, we must also share it with others. We do that through our foremost principle: charity.

Most sacraments are received only once. Others are not. Those that are not, require ongoing action and active participation by the conferee in order to foster actual living of the faith. As Saint Matthew so famously said: Faith without action is dead. The conferring of a sacrament is designed to spiritually nourish the celebrant such that he is imbued with the Holy Spirit to an extraordinary extent that he will want to show his love of God by helping others through action. Doing anything less is essentially ignoring the will of God.

The beauty of the Knights of Columbus is that through the "sacrament" of the Admissions Degree, a Brother has the ability to put his faith into action immediately and constantly. He is able to prove his holiness and make the world holier. It is a self-fulfilling prophecy. By demonstrating holiness through acts of charity coupled with humility, a Knight will surely reap the benefit of receiving the grace of God and thus growing his faith. Demonstrating charity, giving worship to God, and building up the body of Christ will cause you to grow your faith. That is concept is implicit in our mission statement. It doesn't get much better.

As good Catholic gentlemen, each of us Knights must demonstrate our faith in our daily lives. Our various and numerous programs, fundraising efforts, and works of charity enable us to easily exemplify the fulfillment of the sacrament that has been bestowed on us during the Admissions Degree. However, it is up to each of us to make it happen. I would encourage all of you to get involved in Council activities so that you can fulfill God's will for you. Remember: Active Knights Stay Knights. The corollary is this: Active Knights are more faith filled Knights. Let that be you.

Vivat Jesus,
Dan Doyle

Columbus Club Report

Brothers, Families, and Friends,

Save the Date:

Saturday November 16, 2019, is our annual Council 367/ Columbus Club work day, at our Council home. Mark your calendars and plan to join us for our annual fall cleanup starting at 0800.

We will need to scrape and paint the exterior stairs in the back; install a new ceiling light in the CC office. We will also be planting bushes to replace those that died this summer in the front of the building. The Sherriff's work team will be there again this year to help clean up the leaves and grounds.

Booze Lockers:

As some of you know, we rent lockers to members for the storage of member's liquor bottles, for their personal use in the lounge. We are updating our inventory confirming usage of individual lockers. We can't identify the users of the following lockers. A-11; A-18; A-23;A-26;A-30; B-5;B-6;B-10;B-18;B-19;B-20;B-22;B-24;B-25;B-26B-30

If you have the key and are still using these lockers please contact me or PGK John Person so we can update the records or empty out abandoned lockers.

Maintenance and Improvement Work.

Unfortunately, after trying minimal repairs, we eventually had to replace the A/C unit in the lounge. We also had to fix a leak in the sink in the Past Grand Knights Bar. We are tracking other leaks to cut water waste.

There is a list posted in the Lounge of other pending work items. We need someone to help with a few electrical installations and maintenance items. If you have some skills in this area we could use some help installing lights and moving a ceiling fan. A list of needed maintenance items is posted on the closet door in the Lounge. If you can help, please contact me or House Committee Members: Squad or Napoleon.

Mortgage.

We paid off our mortgage this month. We are forever grateful for the help of Brother Sir Knight Rich Mozelewski who was instrumental in obtaining and guaranteeing this loan for us. He contributed many things to Council 367 and the CC over the years. We are deeply saddened by his recent death. He will be missed.

Thank you to all of you that contribute time treasure and talent to help us keep the Council 367 home operating and maintained.

Vivat Jesus,
Tom Horsch,
Columbus Club President
