Sister Columbiettes,

The weather has been just beautiful. Let's enjoy it before the colder weather comes upon us.

Thanks to all who attended the Life Chain this month. There was a great turnout in support of the unborn children.

We had our officers training at our Western Chapter meeting this month so we are all ready to fulfill your expectations of us. It was very informative.

We had our luncheon for Rosemary. A good time was had by all. Thanks to all who helped at the open house. We appreciate all your hard work.

Coming up we have the Past President Testimonial Dinner for Lorraine Noger at Jacques Reception Center, Middletown on November 1st.

Don't forget about our Flap Jacks Breakfast on November 14th at Applebee's in Newton. Tickets will be $10/per person and we are serving from 8am to 10am. We need volunteers and don't forget to sell tickets and buy them for yourselves.

On November 20th we are helping St. Paul's Abbey make wreaths. Come enjoy the fun and bring a covered dish to share with everyone.

Barbara Lucarelli's Testimonial Dinner is November 22nd.

We welcomes a new member on Sunday at St. Francis de Sales in Vernon. Welcome Diana Rudio.

Our next meeting will be November 2nd at the Community Center. Don't forget we are holding a 1st degree so the meeting will begin promptly at 6:30. Please arrive earlier so we can start on time. So far we have 1 new member for that night. It's not too late if you know anyone who wants to join and couldn't make it on October 25th.

Please remember that November we are collecting pet food for the food pantry. Animals get hungry too.

May the Angels in heaven protect and guide us all.

Pat Keegan
