Grand Knight's Letter

Dear Brothers and Families,

September was a very busy month with the Parish Picnic, Soccer Challenge and of course the 20th Anniversary Banquet. We had over 20 Knights and wives supporting the Parish Picnic, so thanks to all the hard working souls who went out and got the grills, set up the tables and chairs, stood in the smoke and grilled the hamburgers and hot dogs, assembled them and served them, cooked the beans, chopped the onions, tore down the tables and chairs hauled them back to church and returned the grills to the very generous Knights who loaned them. Way to Go Knights!

Dave Skouby's stroke of genius of holding the Soccer Challenge at the picnic (Editors note: Although Dave's parents like to think of him as a genius, and he used to believe it himself, 3 or 4 people actually came up with the idea independently) we had a record number of kids participate (see Dave's report in the Newsletter).

As for our first attempt of holding a Spiritual activity by assembling on September 18th by Bishop Paul Loverde's webinar on Pillar of Truth: the Church and the Modern Moral Crisis encountered some technical difficulties. We could see the webinar (great picture!) but we could not hear the webinar. A classic case of the spirit was willing but the (Adobe) flash was weak. Thanks to the 20 Knights and wives that showed up for the event. But no worries as we will press on undeterred and have our next Spiritual Outreach December 18th. Details will be in future editions of the newsletter.

The 20th Anniversary Banquet was a HUGE success. We had 94 Knights and wives attend including eleven (11) charter members. We were fortunate to have Father Peffley (Charter Chaplain), Father Kelly (current Chaplain and Pastor of St. Andrew's), Father Bob Cilinski (nephew of Father Julius J. Cilinski), Father Mullaney and Father Richard Dyer. We were also fortunate to have State Deputy, Tommy Harger and his wife Patti attended the event. It was a wonderful evening to recall our roots, celebrate our achievements and enjoy the camaraderie of old and new friends. After dinner we danced the night away to the wonderful music of the DJ. The Westfield's Golf Course staff did a marvelous job. The appetizers were delightful, the food was scrumptious and the venue amazing.

A huge and grateful thank you to the 20th Anniversary Planning Committee. Their four months of planning and hard work paid off as everyone had a wonderful time. Come to the meeting on Tuesday and see the commemorative beer mugs (some for sale) and the 20th Anniversary Keepsake Program.

Please see the Deputy Grand Knights article regarding the upcoming events of particular note is the Past Grand Knight Dinner honoring Past Grand Knight James Auwaerter on Saturday, October 13th. Please contact me (algrimmig@gmail.com) if you intend on coming. Please note that wives are invited also.

All in all a very positive month and it makes realize how blessed I am and how blessed we are all to belong to such a great Council. And the Council that was started 20 years ago by a small group of men in Clifton still is going strong continuing the wonderful work of the Knights of Columbus dedicated to making Father Michael J. McGivney's dream a daily reality. Thank you for all you do to keeping that dream live and thriving. I am very proud to be your Grand Knight.

Fraternally,
Al Grimmig,
Grand Knight

Knight and Family of the Month

Knight of the Month

This month it was particularly difficult to select just one Brother out of so many worthy Brothers for Knight of the Month. However, it is my pleasure to recognize Brother Joseph Marter as Knight of the Month for September. Joe was a key member of the 20th Anniversary Planning Committee. Although all members of the Planning Committee did an outstanding job, Joe Marter was responsible for the design, layout and print-ready editions of the Save-the-Date cards, the 20th Anniversary Invitations, the 20th Anniversary Keepsake Program, the Award placards and the video that hallmarked the achievements of the Council that played throughout the banquet. Joe quietly went about his craft attending to every detail until these products were as perfect as could be. For all his diligence, ingenuity, innovation and hard work it is my pleasure to recognize Joseph Marter as Knight of the Month.

Family of the Month

September's Family of the Month is a couple who quietly and efficiently go about their way supporting Church and Council. Paul and Judy Bourgeois were in charge of making all the table placards for the tables at the 20th Anniversary Banquet ensuring that each one had the proper color dot for the proper meal selections. To ensure the ambiance was appropriately set Paul and Judy unselfishly donated colorful flower arrangements for each table. It is my pleasure to recognize Paul and Judy Bourgeois as Family of the Month for September.

Field Agent of the Month

The Ulmer Agency informed us that our Field Agent, James Bertine, earned Field Agent of the Month for August. In recognition of Jim's accomplishment, the Ulmer Agency has given the Council a $50 check towards the Council's Vocation fund. Congratulations Jim!

Events and News

Deputy Grand Knight's Letter

Brothers,

I thank all those who supported the Parish Picnic, Soccer Challenge, Coffee & Donuts, and the 20th Anniversary Banquet in September. All were successful events.

And there's a lot happening in October. The PGK Dinner is scheduled for October 13 in Monsignor Hannan Hall, and will be a catered affair. Don't miss it. We also support the Parish Octoberfest on October 13 and the All Saints Party on October 31.

Our Council plans to sponsor a Knights Retreat at Holy Family Jubilee Park in Gainesville on Saturday, October 20, 9AM – 2 PM. In event of rain, it will be conducted at St. Timothy's. If any Knights want to help with any of these events, send me an email, or contact the lead person when the event is announced via email. Have a great month.

May God bless,

Tom Martin,

Deputy Grand Knight
