IN REMEMBRANCE OF 9/11

Please take time today to remember all the innocent lives taken away in this country's worst act of terrorism. Please pray for those families and friends and all those that were and continue to be impacted by the loss of their loved ones. Pray for those families and friends that have a loved one overseas. Pray for the soldiers who are defending our country. Don't ever forget to thank them for their bravery and their sacrifice. Pray that God will help mend the broken hearts and help protect and heal our nation that it so desperately needs.

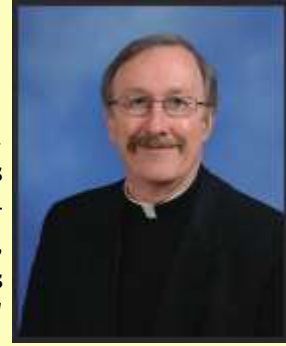

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

NEW PASTOR

Fr. Bill Hammer

Please welcome Fr. William "Bill" Hammer as our new Pastor at St. Margaret Mary starting October 15, 2015. Fr. Bill comes to us from his current assignment as Pastor of the Basilica of Saint Joseph Pro-Cathedral in Bardstown and Pastor of Saint Michael in Fairfield, Kentucky where he has been assigned this last 10 years. He also is currently serving his second term as the President of the Priests' Council.

Fr. Bill has served in many roles within our Archdiocese since his ordination in 1980; serving as Pastor of St. Gabriel, Director of the Office of Ecumenism, Director of Continuing Education for Clergy, Co-Chaplain of St. Xavier High School and Associate Pastor of the Cathedral of the Assumption to name the highlights.

Fr. Bill is an original Louisville native, growing up in St. Matthews. He frequently visits our city to see his many family members. He is looking forward to serving St. Margaret Mary and helping our community move forward and grow even stronger in our faith.

We thank Fr. Bill for saying yes to serving us during this difficult time. I have no doubts that the pastoral strengths and skills he possess will serve us so well now and into the future.

NEW SECRETARY/RECEPTIONIST

Melissa Swigart

Melissa is originally from Shepherdsville, Kentucky where she attended St. Aloysius school. She currently lives in Mt. Washington with her husband, Jason, her 2-year-old daughter Natalie, and their family's basset hound named Hambone.

Melissa has spent the last ten years working in banking, until she decided to leave and pursue a new opportunity and for the chance to spend more time with her beloved family.

When she's not working at SMM, Melissa enjoys her time reading, writing, doing crafts, obsessing over all University of Kentucky sports, and being a loyal fan to the Indianapolis Colts football team.

If you happen to see Melissa, please welcome her!

YOUTH MINISTRY NEWS

YOUTH MINISTRY

Our teens are very passionate about youth ministry at St. Margaret Mary. An important part of our youth ministry is community. Each Sunday teens are invited to attend the 5pm mass and sit and worship together. Youth leadership is also a major part of youth ministry. We believe that our teens have unique gifts to share with our parish. All teens are encouraged to serve at the mass as a lector, usher and greeter, alter server, communion minister or cantor. To learn more, call Janet Angus at 690-2833.

Did you know?

To give a more youthful sound to the liturgy, there will be extra musicians playing guitar, etc. at the 5pm mass on the 2nd Sunday of each month. If you are willing to share your musical talent (singing or playing instruments) at the 5pm Sunday mass, reach out to Brenda Harrison at bharrison@stmm.org. We hope you attend the 5pm mass and celebrate the Eucharist with us!

UPCOMING YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Mark Your Calendars

Q: What's happening this fall?

A: Teen Youth Nights & Bible Studies, of course!

September 13th marks our "Youth Night" kick-off gathering following the 5 p.m. Sunday liturgy! Teens (high school freshmen through seniors) are welcome to come and join our community. We will be hosting youth nights twice a month on the second and fourth Sunday of each month from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. in the Spirituality Center.

Be sure to mark these on your calendar!

Teens are also encouraged to participate in a new and exciting bible study this fall called, Acts: The Keys and the Sword.

What does the Acts of the Apostles have to say to the average teen?

A lot, it turns out. Teens today face peer pressure, bullying, and living in a world that is often hostile to their faith. In Acts we see a young Church that faced remarkably similar struggles. More importantly, we see how the first Christians overcame these difficulties. They succeeded not because they were the best-dressed, had the most money, or had the most "friends" in their social networks, but because, united in their love for God, they found the courage to live the Faith.

Registration for Acts: The Keys and the Sword Bible Study and Revelation (upcoming spring bible study) is open now! The registration deadline is September 27th. Fill out the form linked below and return it to the Parish Office. Come join the fun!

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

STEP BY STEP

Students Making a Difference Step by Step

The Step by Step Student Stewardship program is designed to teach our students at SMM that no one is too young to make a difference. Students will learn about our call to stewardship and the Christian way of life.

Step by Step is run by parent and grandparent volunteers who work in conjunction with the teachers and the parish to reinforce the idea of stewardship. Volunteers begin each year educating students about stewardship and the needs within our community.

After conducting a meeting with the students, the volunteers plan the service project or projects for the year. Many of these projects have been implemented over the past several years and are now simply duplicated or new ideas can be introduced.

Each grade has its own focus for volunteering their time. The idea behind the various foci is to expose our students to as many volunteer opportunities as possible while they are students at SMM. Volunteers help coordinate a service project within each focus area.

- Kindergarten Activity - Ronald McDonald House
 - Kindergarten - Introduction to Stewardship
- First Grade - Hungry and Needy
 - First Grade Activity - Dare to Care
- Second Grade - Environment and Literacy
 - Second Grade Activity - Aluminum Can Collection/Grounds Cleanup
- Third Grade - Sick and Disabled
 - Third Grade Activity - Visits to St. Anne's
- Fourth Grade - Elderly
 - Fourth Grade Activity - Visits to Elder Care Facilities

- Sixth Grade - Literacy & Homeless
 - Sixth Grade Activity - Homeless Shelter Visits and visits to learning centers
- Seventh Grade - Refugees and Veterans

Everyone is encouraged to participate in this worthwhile committee. Parents spend time meeting with the students and organizing the chosen activities. GRIEF RELIEF

What's Your Grief? Blog

Many types of losses are capable of causing complicated emotions, difficulties in daily functioning and impairment in one's ability to move forward. These losses are often significant enough to require a decent amount of processing and, just like after a death, grievors often view their lives in terms of before and after the loss. Here's a brief list of events that can evoke feelings of loss and grief:

Illness or Injury	Incarceration	Infertility
Shift or weakening of the family/support system	Marital discord	Empty nest
Loss of employment or other role	Divorce	Substance abuse
Abuse	Separation	Addiction
Trauma	Being the victim of a crime	Rehabilitation
Exposure to death or trauma	Mental Illness	Life transition
Loss of home	Dementia	Estrangement
	Serious illness

These events, many of them losses themselves, can have a profound impact on one's emotional well being and may cause individuals to experience grief due to loss of security, hopes, dreams, innocence, independence, health and/or mobility, comfort, community, connection, love, intimacy, immortality, trust, and faith. Grief may also be felt due to shifts in one's self-perception, identity, purpose, or worldview.

I don't think that one can fully understand grief until they expand their definition to be inclusive of all types of loss. First, because losses need to be dealt with before they start piling on. Next, many of these losses occur as secondary losses after a death so it's important to understand how dynamic our situations might become when we have multiple losses to reconcile. Furthermore, new losses can drudge up emotions related to old losses, while old losses can magnify and complicate our ability to deal with new losses. And you thought my logic statements were complicated!

Heck, let me complicate things a little further by pointing out that most people aren't sure which losses are 'worthy' or 'significant' enough to be grieved resulting in:

- A lack of support from friends, family and society who don't understand the significance of the loss
- A griever's uncertainty about whether they have the right to grieve
- Feelings of being misunderstood, unsupported, disenfranchised, etc
- Improperly dealing with losses through avoidance, negative coping, etc.

Taking the time to deal with grief is a luxury for many so when a loss is ambiguous it often doesn't even get acknowledged. Unfortunately many of the circumstances that lead to loss are complicated - job loss, divorce, illness - one needs to navigate paying bills, details, legalities, treatments, etc. Keep swimming, stay afloat, who can worry about anything else? But we can't always out swim our losses and leftover feelings of sadness, anger, regret, guilt, and anxiety loom ominously in the dark and murky water.

WHEN GRIEVING A LOSS...

1. I ACKNOWLEDGE I HAVE THE RIGHT TO GRIEVE THIS LOSS. MY FEELINGS TOWARDS THE PERSON OR THING(S) I'VE LOST ARE REAL, SIGNIFICANT, AND NO LESS IMPORTANT THAN ANYONE ELSE'S.
2. I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT MY GRIEF AND I DESERVE THE TIME AND SPACE NEEDED TO PROCESS AND DEAL WITH THE LOSS. I WILL NOT LET OTHERS MINIMIZE THIS NEED OR DEPRIVE ME OF MY RIGHT TO GRIEVE.
3. I UNDERSTAND THERE ARE OTHERS WHO ARE GRIEVING SIMILAR LOSSES. I WILL BE OPEN TO THE POSSIBILITY OF RECEIVING SUPPORT FROM THOSE WHO HAVE HAD SIMILAR EXPERIENCES.
4. I ACKNOWLEDGE I HAVE THE RIGHT TO RITUALS HONORING AND REMEMBERING MY DECEASED LOVED ONES AND OTHER LOSSES.
5. I CHOOSE TO BE SUPPORTED BY THOSE WHO VALIDATE MY LOSS AND SUPPORT ME IN MY GRIEF. I CHOOSE NOT TO ENGAGE WITH THOSE WHO BELITTLE ME AND TREAT MY FEELING AS INVALID.
6. MY LOSS IS REAL AND I MUST FIND PERSONAL WAYS TO EXPLORE AND EXPRESS MY GRIEF AND EMOTION.
7. I'LL TAKE WHAT I'VE LEARNED FROM MY OWN GRIEF AND LOSS AND STRIVE TO SHOW SENSITIVITY TOWARDS THE GRIEF AND LOSS EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS.

Litsa and I created an oath a while back for a class we've been conducting on loss with individuals experiencing homelessness in Baltimore City. I know, an oath is kind of cheesy. If you prefer to think of it as a contract or a promise to yourself, go for it. The only thing I want is for you to remember that you are entitled to grieve your losses, but it is up to them to identify these losses and to take the time and space you need to deal with them. As we've said, those around you may not understand which losses are apt to impact you and to trigger complicated emotions, so if you want support and understanding from others you may need to tell them so.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults calls newcomers to enter into a journey with us in our life-long journey to conversion. Please invite your family, friends, neighbors, and even your enemies to come learn about how we worship and pray to our God, and his son Jesus. There is no commitment or obligation required until or unless they decide to pursue the catholic religion and become members, and they are free to walk away at any time.

The rite has four periods during which one learns about the Catholic use of symbols, scripture, prayer, and our views on moral issues, social justice, doctrine, church structure, community, and how we strive to weave the relationship of these concepts into daily living.

Our parish mission is to be disciples who know, love, and serve God. A discipleship modeled on Christ's life and teachings. Come and journey into the mystery of God with us.

MOVE

Men of Virtue & Excellence

M.O.V.E.

BEGINS SEPTEMBER 13TH

7:00 p.m. - 8:15 p.m. IN HOSPITALITY ROOM!

Community refreshments available after 5 p.m. mass. Video begins at 7:00. Beginning this Fall we will be presenting and discussing Fr. Robert Barron's Priest, Prophet, King series. The better we understand Jesus, the better we understand ourselves. But who was Jesus, this itinerant preacher whom many called the Messiah?

In Priest, Prophet, King, you'll discover Jesus as the Anointed One - the ultimate priest, prophet, and king foreshadowed throughout the Hebrew Scriptures. Using biblical insights and engaging stories, Father Barron affirms that we see Jesus most clearly through the lens of the Old Testament.

Through this deeply biblical program, you will better understand Jesus, become more familiar with Scripture, and realize your own priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission, received when you are baptized "into Christ." No need to sign up, just show up on September 13.

CATHOLIC EVANGELIZATION OUTREACH

CEO

This October we will launch an exciting new evangelization initiative called Catholic Evangelization Outreach or "CEO" for short. CEO is the brain child of Pete Mathison, a parishioner from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Pete asked God how he was being called to serve and God answered.

CEO is a "Christ-centered, lay-driven, grass roots ministry" organized and presented by ordinary people for ordinary people. In 2014 Donna Lang introduced CEO to formation leadership here at St. Margaret Mary.

The purpose of CEO is for lay people to share their experience of how God has moved in their lives to bring them into a personal relationship with Him. Each event features a guest speaker, who offers a compelling witness. Our first CEO event will feature Donna Lang. After many years of searching and questioning, Donna experienced a conversion of heart that has absolutely transformed her life.

"What is missing from my life..."

Join us on Sunday, October 18th at 7:00 p.m. for a compelling message and witness to God's transforming love. All are invited!

If you want to learn more about CEO, please contact Lou Steier or Donna Lang at ceo@stmm.org
