Family of the month:

Labor Day Barbecue: As this goes to press, we are preparing to fire up the pits for the Labor Day Barbecue. We will have a lot more food than we had on the 4th of July, but still hope to sell out and go home before noon on Monday. Hope to see you there.

Hope Unlimited: The check has been delivered and Hope Unlimited has taken delivery on the new Ultrasound Unit Purchased by the Knights of Columbus in the Paducah Area. The formal announcement and blessing by Bishop Medley will take place as Bishop Medley's schedule permits in September. There will be major Media coverage of this event.

Excess property: Over the years, more and more property has accumulated around the hall, and we are at the point that it is a liability rather than an asset. Currently we have 4 sets of outdoor patio furniture (table and 4 chairs each), 6 office chairs (non-swivel) and a large number of large fans. These items are available to members, or will be donated to other nonprofits or sold and the proceeds given to the Christmas Basket Fund. Contact Bob Whitlock or Joe Weitlauf for details.
